POSSIBLE ANCESTRY OF PHILIP GAYLOR AND MARGARET ?LASHER

The Gaylor and Weaver family of whom we treat probably were of the Palatine families who immigrated to NY in 1709/10.

The name Gaylor is not a common one. Philip's father would probably have been born 1725/1765, (calculated from age of Philip), and thus of age to serve in Rev. War. A search must include variant spelling of the name.

The only birth that I have found for a Philip of the correct age was the son of Adam and Mgt. KEHLER, christened 17 March 1765, NYNY Lutheran Church, (C510571, serial # 1971, IGI). I have no proof which might link our Philip to NYC at that early date.

One Adam KELLER s/o Henrich Keller and Christina was chr. 14 July 1816 Palatine, Stone Arabia, Mont Co NY. Batch 7307816 Serial 91 IGI, FHC.

One Adam KELLER, s/o Caspar Keller and Cath. Shoemaker, b. or bpt 30 June 1833 Ref. Prot. Dutch Ch., German Flats, Herkimer Co., NY. Another date for birth 29 Feb. 1833.
One Adam Keller m. Eva Kern 20 Oct 1863 Madison St. German Presb. Ch. NYNY.

The best clue to a family relationship for Margaret or Philip is the fact that HENRY LASHER and wife Elizabeth were sponsors at the baptism of Elizabeth, daughter of our Philip and Mgt GELER in 1814 at Trinity Lutheran Church at Stone Arabia, NY.

Lasher Lineage by Powers p. 135 and 172 lists a Henry Lasher 1765-1845 m Eliz. Bauder 1768-1849. He was s/o Garret, b. 1732 and Cath. Dillenbach Lasher. Their ch. were all bp. Stone Arabia Lutheran Ch. Their son Henry Jr. b. 1790. Henry Sr. had a possible daughter Margaret. Time span seems a litle short for their dau. Mgt to be m. by 1800/02. Need to search Bauder Geny and Dallenbachs, Dillenbecks in America.

One Henry LASHER resided next door to our Philip GAYLOR in 1810 in Palatine, NY. This was prob. Henry Lasher Sr or Jr mentioned above.

Gibson is another possibility. PHILLIP KELLER and MARGARET GIBSON were sponsors at baptism of Margaret, d/o Frederick KELLER and Margaret Stillenner Dec. 23, 1799 at Fonda Reformed Church, Caughnawaga, N.Y. (#2536) (Barker diskette Palatines of Mont. Co. NY). Since the name Philip, in relation to the GAYLOR/KELER surname is so unusual, it is possible that he was our Philip. (ck out Caughnawaga histories). Was Mgt Gibson, wf or soon to be wf?

IGI does not list any approp. Mgt. Gibson birth. Jacob GIBSON and Polly DEMING were in Mont. Co. 1785, at Currytown in 1792, a John GIBSON and Cath. WASSON were in Palatine 1800.

Did Hiram, s/o Philip Gaylor, follow the Gibson family to Buffalo 1854. Both families were connected in Buffalo with the St. Paul´s Episcopal Church. This is a different denomination for the Gaylor family. Since Hiram was only in Buffalo a short time, they may not have belonged to any church when dau. Catherine was married in 1855. Many people, not members, were married in that church at that time.

Catharine, b. ca 1794/1800, d/o Philip KALER, (believed to be our Philip), married Jacob C. Fox 1820 Minden Twnship, Ft. Plain, NY, Reformed Dutch Ch; Cath. Kaler Fox joined Stone Arabia Luth. Ch. 1823 as did her bro. James in 1820. Jacob was s/o Christopher Wm Fox and Mgt. Nellis, (Fox Bk read by Nicolls). Also saw Catherine´s name spelled as Koehler on IGI. Fox family probably originally Fuchs.
Catharine Kaler Fox named a son Hiram Fox.

In the Compendium of Early Mohawk Families by Marlys B. Penrose, 1990:

Friedrich GEHLER m. Margaretha Zoeller Apr 23, 1793 at Ref. Dutch Ch. Palatine, Stone Arabia: 198. (Batch C51092-1, IGI).

Friderich GELER and Margaret ____ had son Jacob, b. April 11, 1794 (Trinity Luth Ch Stone Arabia: 82), Ser.# 01021-9. Sponsors for Jacob were Nicholaus WEBER and Elisabet. Note that our Philip was also listed as Geler in the same Trinity Luth. church in 1805 and 1814 when his children were born. Friderich is a good possibility to have been brother of Philip, belonging to the same church where Philip was a member in 1802. This alerts us to the possibility that our Philip Gayler may have been in the area by this time.

One Fredric GELLER m Maria Eliz. Tillabagh 1784 in Ref. Prot. Dutch Caughnawaga, NY.

FOX
The name Fox/Fuchs had var. sp. in the Palatine area.
The Name Collier sometimes written as Caljer, Kalyer, Colyer, and Gallier, Gallinger. There is a mss of this family at Dept. of Hist. Fonda NY Desc. of Jochem Caljer by Herbert Seversmith. They were also at Stone Arabia by 1765. I have not searched this family.

PROVEN GAYLOR LINE

PHILIP GAYLER AND MARGARET ?LASHER

Gen. 1

1. Philip Gayler was born ca 1765-1784, (1810 census, age 26/45). Born by ca 1780 since dau. Catherine was born 1800 (Fox Geny). He was probably born in this country, (no foreign born parents listed by son Hiram 1850 census). He probably died 1834/5 in the City of Albany, NY, when he disappeared from City Directories. Wife Margaret was listed there as a widow in 1838 living at his address, 53 N. Lansing St.

reentered Germany on Philip

Philip's marriage by 1794-1800 is calculated by the age of the young female (?Catharine), in his household in the 1810 census.

Philip's wife Margaret was born 1765/1784 (26/45 yrs 1810 census), b. by 1780/8 (dau. b. 1800). Margaret was born in this country, (1850 census, son Hiram). Margaret was alive 1838 in Abany. Philip was a married man with a wife Margaret in Sept. 1802 when his son James was listed in the Birth and Christening records of Trinity Lutheran Church, Stone Arabia, Montgomery Co. N.Y. The name of town of Stone Arabia was later changed to Palatine. In that church Philip's name was spelled various ways - Keler, Kehler, Geler, Gehler, Caler. Other possible spellings are Kaler, Kieler, Koehler. Keller is also a possible variant according to professional Genealogists. Gaylerd or Gaylord is another possibility if census taker or other clerk wrote the name in this fashion as was done when grandson was called James Gaylord when he m. Stevenson in Schenectady.

1802-1814, Trinity Lutheran Church records Stone Arabia, Palatine, Montgomery Co. NY list births of James Keler, 18 Sept 1802 and John Kehler, 8 July 1808, born to Philip Keler/Kehler and wife Margaret. Also, the births of Hiram, 6 Dec 1805 and Elizabet, 10 Sept 1814 to Philip and Margaret Geler. Eliz. was chr. 23 Oct. 1814. There is no doubt this is our Philip Gaylor.

(A noted Palatine authority, Henry Z. Jones, states that variant spelling of the name Gaylor may include the earlier German spelling of Kehler, Keller or Kohler.

The Reformed Dutch churches of Stone Arabia and Fort Plain were interchangeable as to members and in the church cemetery).

The name of the wife of Philip, and those of his children James and Hiram, are consistent in the Stone Arabia Lutheran Church records 1802-1814, (LDS film #1204984, Vosburgh church transcriptions), Albany City Directories, and 1850 Albany census.

To further connect this family:
1850 Census lists son James Gaylor of Albany as born in Montgomery Co.
The death certificate of Hiram's daughter Nellie Louisa Gaylor, b. Albany, (then married to 3rd husband Chas. Caldwell), lists her parents as Hiram Gaylor and Sarah Weaver.

Hiram's children were baptized as Gaylor and Galer in the Stone Arabia Church 1828 and 1831. Wife Sarah Weaver was called Sally in the church record. Sponsors at the christening of Hiram's son, John WEBER Galor was WIDOW WEBER and HENRICH PIELER. Was wd Weber, mother or grmother of Sarah Weaver? (The name Pieler could also be Bieler in other records according to Henry K. Jones, author of Palatines 1710. Since dau. Catherine was listed on IGI at marr. as Kieler it raises the poss. that Henry Pieler could have been Henry KIELER).

Philip

List

1800 Philip not identified on census. It is possible that he was not head of household in 1800. There were Gaylors in 1800 in NYS census.
In 1800, one Henry Lasher appeared in Mont. Co. census 7:4 along with many other Lasher families. This prob. Henry and Eliz. Bauder Lasher.

1810 census, p. 61.
Philip Gayler age 26-45, was listed at PALATINE, Montgomery Co. N.Y. with female age 26-45, for birth between 1765-84. Also, 3 males under 10 yrs, (1800-1809) and one female 10-16 (1794-1800) in his household.
The males are accounted for in christening records of Stone Arabia Luth. Ch. The female is accounted for when Catharine born 1800, joined the same ch. as a married woman in 1823.

Philip Gayler and HENRY LASHER appeared next to each other on this census between Christopher C. FOX and George Patter/Potter. Others nearby were John Eisinford, John Danolds, Malachi Potter, Andrew Gay, John and Henry Grames, Geo. Loucks. John C. FOX was listed 8 houses away. Also listed nearby was John Lasher, unidentified. (Is the Gay name another variant of Gaylor)?

Other neighbors in 1810 were Shults, Waggoner, Powel. In 1810, Hiram Gaylor was 5 yrs old.

(One Christopher C. Fox was b. 1774, s/o Chris W. of Palatine and Eliz. Hess, d/o John Hess. Chris C. m. Margaret Gramps/Crim by 1795. He had a bro. John.
Another Chris C. was b. 1774 was s/o Chris Philip Fox and 2nd wf Cath. Hess. Wd Catharine Hess had a prev. m. to Jacob WEAVER. He also had a brother John. Note that Philip's gr. grch. James H. Gaylor m. Hannah Hess, d/o William and Katherine Wagner Hess many yrs later in Albany.

1810 Palatine, Henry LASHER p. 61, (next door to Philip Gaylor). 2 m under 10, 1m 16-26, 1m over 45; 1f under 10, 2f 10-16, 2f 16-26, 1f 26-45. If over 45 yrs, b. by 1765 or prior. This must be Henry b. 1765 who m Eliz. Bauder. Could be father of Mgt?
John Lasher also p. 61.321-2 1-11.
Conradt Lasher appears on p. 63, prob. bro. of Henry. In 1800 Henry Lasher was in Mont. Co. 7:4 and Conradt 22:4. Several other Conreadts in Columbia Co.

1810 Palatine.
P. 62 Jacob, Jeremiah and HENRY PEELER appear between Baily, Eaker, Brine and Nihoof. Also John Crous.
p. 63 Frederick WEAVER, Conradt Lasher, Henry Hart.
p. 64 John Weaver.
These Weavers may be a clue as to Sarah's family, since they resided so close to Gaylor family.

P. 72, Openheim, a nearby town, Christopher, Daniel and David Fox. Jacob and Daniel WEAVER were also listed on this page.

1820/1830 census, Philip Gaylor NOT identified. Perhaps will be found under variant sp. of names.
In 1820, one Philey Gaylor appeared in Bloomfield, Ont. Co. NY.

CITY DIRECTORY, Albany, N.Y. PHILIP GAYLOR.
1828-1830 No Gaylor in Dir.
1831/2 N. Lansing St. Also Gaylor and DENNICK, Wheelwrights at 111 N. Market St. bus. address.
1832 53 N. Lansing St. and son James appears at same address, also a wheelwright.
1833/1834 Philip and son James.
1835 only son James appears.
1837 2 listings for James, N. Lansing St, one a brewer, one a wheelwright (prob. same person).
1838 Margaret appears as a widow at 53 N. Lansing St.

Son James Gaylor was listed at the same address with Philip in Albany City Directory. On the 1850 census, James was listed as born in Montgomery Co. NY.

My Father Homer Baker Sr. and his cousin Irene Davidson Howard, great grandchildren of Hiram, said the surname was Gaylord, yet the death certificate of Hiram's daughter, Nellie Louisa Gaylor (Collins) (Clark) (Caldwell), states the name as Gaylor. Gaylor, with it's variant spelling is consistent with other known records. The only one of the family where I found his name listed as Gaylord was the 1832 marriage of Philip's son James in Schenectady.

My grandmother, Nellie Collins (Baker) (Fisher) claimed her lineage as Holland Dutch, as did her sister Edith Collins Davidson and some members of the Bow family cousins. I do not know whether she referred to Collins, Gaylor or Weaver lineage. Nellie claimed that she was descended from Baron Van Valtee or Von Valtee. reck Van or Von). This elusive Valtee link had to come through the Gaylor/Weaver family or the Collins family of NYC.

> There was a Van Vultee family in NYC during the mid 1800's, no connection found. There was a Von Vultie family in NYC in 1849, (NYC Letters of Admin. and IGI) although I cannot find them on the census.

I did not find Philip Gaylor in Albany First Luth. Ch. rec. Other Lutheran churches not searched.

I searched the Albany City Directories beginning 1828 for the name Gaylor since Nellie Louisa Gaylor, dau. of Hiram, was born in Albany according to her death certificate and personal knowledge of family members. At the time I searched these directories, I did not know the variant spellings of the name, must do in future. The name Gaylor appears first at Albany in 1831/2 - 1834. Philip and James Gaylor at 53 N. Lansing St., Hiram Gaylor at 55 N. Lansing St., Wheelwright, and Gaylor and Dennick, Wheelwrights, business at 111 N. Market St. Since families tended to move with relatives, searching the name Dennick might prove fruitful. Philip Gaylor's name does not appear after 1834. (Need to ck out Isaac Dennick line, cannot find, try DeNyck).

Some of the early Albany cemeteries have disappeared with the growth of the city. Some of the graves were relocated. I have made only a preliminary search under name Gaylor, but have not found his grave. I have not checked Montgomery Co. graves. (Did not search variant sp. of Albany cemeteries, must do).

Since the family resided at the N. Lansing St. address for several years, they may have owned the property. A Deeds search might prove productive.

HISTORY OF MONTGOMERY CO. AREA:

Shortly after 1711, a large number of German Palatinates settled in Schoharie and the Mohawk Valley on Government land. About the same time, a considerable number of Holland Dutch from Schenectady and vicinity also settled in Montgomery Co.

In Oct. 1723, the Stone Arabia patent of 12,700 acres was granted to Garlock for the benefit of the Palatinates. Land Grants were distributed beginning in 1730 and almost all by 1762. Stone Arabia DISTRICT was formed March 1772.

On March 8, 1773, the name of Stone Arabia, N.Y. was changed to PALATINE. It became a TOWN in March 1778 which included all of the territory between Little Falls and the Noses. It extended from the Mohawk River to Canada. Between 1797 and 1827, several towns were taken off including OPPENHEIM to Fulton Co. in 1808, and EPHRATAH to Fulton Co. in 1827. NYS Gazetteer by French mentions Stone Arabia, Palatine Bridge and Palatine Church, all within the Town of PALATINE, which was first settled in 1713. The limits of the town included the larger portion of the Stone Arabia Patent.

German was the language taught in the first schools. The early records of the settlement are lost. The Reformed Protestant Dutch Church at Stone Arabia is one of the oldest in the valley. The records of the church begin in 1739. A LUTHERAN Church which was built in 1770, burned in 1780. The LUTHERAN (stone) Church was built in 1770 at Palatine Church. At the time that French published his Gazetteer, ?1860's, there were only 3 churches in town, 2 Lutheran and one Dutch, (Ref: French).

PALATINE is in the Mohawk Valley which was heavily settled by the German Palatine Immigrants of 1710. According to The Palatine Families of New York by Henry Z. Jones many of the descendants of these Palatine families claimed Holland Dutch ancestry falsely. The notion came about because many had fled to Holland before emigrating to this country.

Trinity Lutheran Church, Stone Arabia records: Birth and Bpt. recorded 1751 to present excepting 1780-1788; marriage records, none 1751-1768, none May 1772-Oct. 1774, none 1780-88, none 1816-1826, a few 1826-1833, none 1830-1840; deaths, burials, none 1751-1768, none 1770-1780, none 1780-1810, none 1814-1844.

Caspar Keller/Lisse "Lisa" Barbara were members of the Palatine Reformed Dutch Ch. of Stone Arabia, having children Bp. in 1764. Caspar Keller and Elis. had child there 1770. In Montgomery Co. several Keller men had children named Peter between 1764 and 1835, suggesting a patriarch of this name, (IGI).
Henrich Keller/Peggy were listed having a child Sally at Palatine, Stone Arabia in 1818, but the most authentic is this child´s christening at Minden, Mont. Co. St. Paul´s Luth. Ch. (Why did I put this in)?

Jones does not find any connection between this German family and Frantz KELLER, emigrant of NY who m Barbara Adam, but he does mention that the Adam family were ancient at Klein-Liberau, and Elizabetha Barbara Adam of this family m. the NY 1709´er Johann Peter Kneskern.

There was a George KAHLOR in N.Y.C. in 1820, apparently living in a boarding house.

IF Nellie Louisa Gaylor (Collins) (Clark)(Caldwell´s) obit. was faulty and her grandfather who was killed in the Rev. was Henry Galler (Hist. Montg. Co, NY, p 130), rather than the stated Henry Weaver, it would open new clues for search of our Gaylor family. Negative to this is that Phillip and son Hiram had no known sons Henry. Philip´s son James had son John H. Also, was Henry Pieler related?

JAMES KALER AND NANCY STEVENSON

5. James Kaylor was born 30 Sept. 1792, (bp. 1793) Freysbush Bridge, (Snow. Arch.), Montgomery Co. NY. (1855 Census). His birth was recorded at Trinity Lutheran Church of Stone Arabia Montgomery Co. NY, [illegible], Montgomery Co. N.Y. He was listed as son Philip KALER and Margaret.

He died as James Kaylor, of Hamilton, May 28, 1879, 85 yrs. 8 months. Buried June 1 in Rural Cem. Lot 33, section 28, Albany, NY. His last address was 89 Second St. Albany. To whom reported W.J. and J.H. Caylor. Cem. listing gives his place of birth. (ASC Real Albany, Rural Cem. Inc)

Gen. 2.

HIRAM GAYLOR AND SARAH WEAVER

4. Hiram Gaylor was the son of Philip and Margaret Gayler (census spelling). Variant spelling for Philip in Stone Arabia church records were Kehler, Keler, Kaler, Geler, Gehler. Hiram was born 6 Dec. 1805 in Montgomery Co. N.Y. His birth was recorded at Trinity Luth. Ch. Stone Arabia, N.Y. under name Geler.
Hiram died 7 Oct. 1856, 51 yrs. A short obituary was published Oct. 10, in Buffalo Morning Express. This states that his funeral was to be held Wednesday at his home 98 E. Seneca St.; requests Albany and New York papers to please copy. It is obvious that the paper knew he was from Albany, but why should N.Y.C. papers copy? Did he have relatives in N.Y.C.? Early Settlers N.Y.S. by Foley, p. 514, lists death as listed above from records of Buffalo Historical Society.

A Certified Transcript of Death, no number, was obtained by me in January 1994 from the City of Buffalo. This gives his address as 92 Seneca St., incorrectly listed on place of birth line; died of peritonitis; physician D. White; undertaker, Kraft and Gray. The letter to me omitted his date of death. This was unacceptable and inefficient. I returned the letter for a replacement copy. The replacement copy in modern handwriting, gives his death date but isn't certified. I need a copy of the original microfilm or ledger.

Hiram was buried in Albany N.Y., then exhumed and reinterred in July 1865 in Greenwood Cem. Bklyn, N.Y. (ph. 718 768 7300) about the time his wife died and was buried in Lot 15984, Section 164. His gravestone is still standing as of January 1998 and says HIRAM GAYLOR of Buffalo, died 7 Oct. 1856 aged 51 years ___; SALLIE GAYLOR HIS WIFE died July 18 1865 aged 57 years, then it looks like a 1 ___ rather than a 7 for the ?month, photo of grave stone not clear. His father was also reinterred there on the same date and listed as Gaylord. Hiram and Sally's daughters Catherine Gaylor Bow and Eurilla Gaylor Bow and her husband William H. Bow were also buried in this Lot. (Ref: David Stenn author of Clara Bow book. Need proof of Hiram's Albany burial).

Hiram was married by 1828, probably in Montgomery Co. N.Y. to Sarah/Sally Weaver who was born 10 Dec. 1807 as calculated from her death certificate. Her birth was in Montgomery Co. N.Y. according to 1850/1855 census records, which also agrees with her birth ca 1807/1808.

Sally Gaylor death certif. Brooklyn, Kings Co. N.Y. #4188 lists her death as 18 July 1865 Kings Co. N.Y., age 57 yrs, seven months and eight days. Born U.S. She was buried in Greenwood Cem. Brooklyn N.Y. Her last address was 122 UNION ST. in 6th WARD, Brooklyn. Her death was caused by Ovarian Dropsy. She was attended by Dr. D. A. Dodge. Her death certif. was written as Gaylord and the d at the end crossed out on the official certif. No undertaker or parents were listed.

Her father-in-law Philip Gaylor was also reinterred in Greenwood in 1865 acc. to David. Stenn and the Greenwood Cem. Her dau. Kate M. Gaylor Bow was also buried Greenwood with several other relatives. Greenwood Cem. is located at 25th St. and 5th Ave. Brookkly, Zip 11232. Ph. 718 768 7300. In January 1998, David Stenn visited Greenwood plot and found that Eurilla and William H. Bow have a nice modern gravestone. Hiram and Sallie Gaylor's stone is an old one lying on the ground. In the photo, it is difficult to read the dates and the inscription. Other broken stones are lying on the ground in the plot. I cannot read the names.

The Obituary for Sally Gaylor was published July 19, 1865 in the Brooklyn Daily Eagle. She died Tuesday eve. July 18, aged 57, wife of the late Hiram Gaylor. The relatives and friends of the family and of the sons-in-law W.H. Bow and W.A. Bow are respectfully invited to attend the funeral at 4 P.M. Thursday from No. 2 Clinton Place, continuation of Clinton St., without further notice. The remains will be taken to Greenwood Cemetery for interment.

Sally's obituary is the proof that the child Jurille in Stone Arabia Church record was abstracted incorrectly and should read Eurilla. Eurilla married William H. Bow, who was believed to be a cousin of William A. Bow who married Eurilla's sister Catherine Gaylor.

Union St. was near the East River and near President and Carroll Streets. Cross Sts. were Van Brunt and Columbia Streets. There was also a Union Ave. in Bklyn.

Must do Ward 6, Bklyn 1865 census. Done - Nothing found any of the family. Poor copy, Some pp unreadable Sarah's father or grandfather was named Henry according to the obituary of her daughter Nellie Louise Gaylor. She does not appear in 1860 census in Buffalo. Need to search Yonkers and Brooklyn for her Weaver relatives.

Widow Weber was sponsor at birth of her child John Weber Gaylor, so Weber as well as Weaver must be searched for her parentage. Who was this widow Weber? Did she sponsor any other children in that church? Must do. Henry Pieler was another sponsor. Did he sponsor other ch, same Church?

Two of the Gaylor children were baptized at Trinity Lutheran Church, Stone Arabia, one in 1828, the other in 1831. By this date, they were recorded with the Gaylor and Galer spelling.

The marriage certificates and the death certificate of their daughter Nellie Louisa (Gaylor), (Collins), (Clark), Caldwell gives the names of her parents, and sometimes lists Nellie and her parents as Gaylord.

Hiram Gaylor was in Palatine Montgomery Co. 1828 and 1831 according to birth + Bpt of his children there. (Stone Arabia Luth Ch Rec) He moved to Albany as a married man in 1831/2. He probably moved with his father and brother James. He stayed in Albany until 1851, and again appeared there in 1854. His whereabouts in 1852/1853 are unknown, but on the 1855 census, he stated he had resided in Erie Co. NY one yr.

It is interesting to note that several Gibsons had marriages in the same church in Buffalo where Hiram's daughter Catherine was married. See Philip's narrative for possible surnames of wife Margaret. Also one Hiram Fox married Elizabeth Stebbins Oct. 1852 in the same church. These possible relatives might indicate that Hiram Gaylor followed relatives to Buffalo.

Nellie Louisa (Gaylor) (Collins) (Clark) Caldwell's obituary in The Brooklyn Daily Eagle Nov. 4 or 5, 1904, states that her grandfather was Gen. Henry Weaver who was killed in the Rev. War. This could not be accurate because her mother, Sarah Weaver, was born 1805 or 1807/8 (census), and was perhaps the grand-daughter of a man who served in the Rev. It would seem that a man named Henry Weaver was father or grandfather of Sarah, unless she had a maternal grandfather named Henry The obituary was probably prepared by daughters Edith or Nellie. Daughter Nellie (Collins) (Baker) Fisher would likely have been a great granddaughter of a man having Rev. service. The elusive Henry Weaver would likely have been born by 1760's or earlier. The rank of the ancestor who served in the Rev. remains to be proved. Could Sarah Weaver have had a father Henry who was killed in the war 1812?

Descendant Mora Bow de Ybarrando indicated there was a Weaver ancestor that was a General in the War of 1812, no first name given. Weaver Genealogy by Clement Weaver mentions a Weaver known as General, but does not follow his line.

Nellie Gaylor Caldwell's obituary also stated that she resided in Buffalo for a short time. She was in Buffalo with her parents in 1855 census, at 6 or 7 yrs of age. Confirming this was the marriage of Nellie Gaylor's sister Catharine to William A. Bow in Buffalo in 1855 at St. Paul's Episc. Church.

Sarah Weaver was very likely from one of the immigrant Palatine families of 1710, since three of the Weaver/Weber families of 1710 settled in the Mohawk Valley area. They were Niclaus and Jacob Weber, and Widow Ottila Weberin. These three families were listed together in Holland on Capt. Jno. Untank's ship in the 5th party. In the Stone Arabia churchbook in Stone Arabia aka Palatine, Johann Geog Nicolaus Weber and and Johann Nicel. H. Weber were listed, (Ref: Jones). It would be necessary to search 3 or 4 intervening generations before the connection could be found. Jones mentions that it is difficult to separate the many Weaver/Weber Palatine families.

The Gaylor or Weaver family were probably related to Henry Pieler and Wd Weber who may have had husband John Weber since she was sponsor at the christening of John Weber Gaylor in 1831. (Ref: Stone Arabia Lutheran Ch.). (Be alert for Bieler and Kieler variant sp.).

A search of the name Henry Weaver in the book "N.Y. in the Rev. War " was not productive in finding a Henry Weaver of high rank.
A search of DAR lineage books found only a Henry Weaver of Pa. who might fit one killed in the Rev. War.

One Hendrick Weaver was listed in the Muster Roll of the N.Y. Provincial Troops in 1758. He was of Capt. John Peter Smith's Co. under command of Col. DeLancey, Esq. He was 23 yrs old, for birth ca 1723, was a farmer, enlisted by Capt. Jno P. Smith, 29 March 1758. Need to track this man.

1860 Albany census, p. 804, Nicholas Weaver 53 yrs b. NY, salesman, wf Fanny 47 yrs, b. NY and ch. William H. 26, James E. 24, Jane F. 19, Juliete 16, Misina 14, Louisa L. 6, all b. N.Y. Adults can read and write. Ch 16 and under were attending school. They were listed 6 houses away from James Gayler, brother of Hiram. He was of age to perhaps have been. brother of Sarah Weaver Gaylor.

1855-56 no Hiram or Sarah listed in Albany.

Since Hiram moved frequently, one could assume that he rented his abode. No property was listed for him on the 1850 census. Arbor Hill in Albany is still scenic in 1989. Many cemeteries have been removed to make room for growth of city.

Note: Was Sarah A. Gaylor at 56 Union St. Albany in 1852 our lady? In 1834, one Stephen Weaver had a father who resided at 51 Union St. His one yr old child was buried from his father's house.

? Note that from study of the 1850 and 1855 census, it appears that the child Ellen and the child Anna may have been the same child, or a child was missing in the census. Also, the Isabella who married John Shields does not appear on either census. Could Isabella have been listed as Ellen in 1850? or Ella ? Could Martha Shields have died and John remarried to Isabella? However, Martha was the wife of Frederick Hubbard, and had dau. Eurilla who was the known spinster of the name in our Gaylor family.

Dau. Catherine Gaylor married William A. Bow, 2 July 1855 in Buffalo at St. Paul's Episc. Church, (Foley and IGI and another ref, prob. church rec.). I did not find any other Gaylor known to be from this family on 1992 IGI. It was surprising to find Kath. listed in Episc. ch. records, when they were previously of the Lutheran faith. However, that Episcopal Church in Buffalo attracted people from all over the area for marriages.

1856, Hiram Gaylor died in Buffalo, N.Y.
1856/7, dau. Kate Gaylor Bow's first child Edward Herold Bow was born Buffalo acc. to his death certif.

Wm H. Gaylor carpenter, 73 3rd, home 85 S. Fourth, and more.

1863/4 Bklyn City Dir. No Sarah Gaylor.
One James Gayler, clerk, home 74 Clinton was listed.

1865, July, Sarah Weaver Gaylor died in Bklyn at 122 Union St.
Were all her daughter married at this time?

Note that Oliver and Eliza Bow, (who were the owners of the cem. lot in Greenwood, where the Gaylor/Gaylord and Bow families were buried), also lived in Albany in 1850. This indicates that the Bow family knew the Gaylor family much before daughter Kate married William A. Bow. Oliver was ~~likely~~ the father of William H. Bow who m. Eurilla Gaylor, d/o Hiram Gaylor.

My father Homer Baker stated there was a family relationship to the Krauss family in Syracuse who were well known there. He did not state to which family the connection descends. Since the Baker, Hinsdale, Larkin, McCracken, Peck and Marsh paternal families of Onondaga Co. have been well researched without finding a Krauss connection, I suspect that the connection comes through his maternal Gaylor or Weaver families.

Gen. 3: Children of Hiram and Sarah Weaver Gaylor.

HIRAM GAYLOR AND SARAH WEAVER

4. Hiram Gaylor was the son of Philip and Mgt. Gayler (census spelling). Variant spelling for Philip in Stone Arabia church records was Kehler, Keler, Kaler, Geler, Gehler. Hiram was born 6 Dec. 1805 in Montgomery Co. N.Y. His birth was recorded at Trinity Luth. Ch. Stone Arabia, NY under name Geler.

Hiram died 7 Oct. 1856, 51 yrs, short obituary. Oct. 10, in Buffalo Morning Express states that funeral to be held Wednesday at his home 98 E. Seneca St., requests Albany and New York papers to please copy. It is obvious that the paper knew he was from Albany, but why should N.Y.C. papers copy? Did he have relatives in NYC? Early Settlers N.Y.S. by Foley, p. 514, lists death as listed above from records of Buffalo Hist. Society.
Certified letter of death obtained Jany 1994 from City of Buffalo states address 92 Seneca St. incorrectly listed on place of birth line, died of peritonitis, physician D. White; undertaker, Kraft and Gray. Letter omitted date of death, unacceptable, inefficient, returned for replacement copy. Replacement copy modern handwriting gives death date but isn´t certified. Need copy of original microfilm or ledger.

Hiram was buried in Albany N.Y., then exhumed and reinterred in July 1865 in Greenwood Cem. Bklyn, N.Y. abt the time his wife died and was buried there. His gravestone is still standing January 1998 and says HIRAM GAYLOR of Buffalo, died 7 Oct. 1856 aged 51 years ___, SALLIE GAYLOR HIS WIFE died July 18 1865 aged 57 years, then it looks like a 1 ___ rather than a 7 for the ?month, picture of stone not clear. (Ref: David Stenn author of Clara Bow book. Need proof of the Albany burial).

√ Hiram was married by 1828, probably in Montgomery Co. N.Y. to Sarah/Sally Weaver who was born 10 Dec. 1807 per death certif. calculated. Her birth was in Montgomery Co. NY according to 1850/1855 census records which agree with birth 1807/1808.

Sarah Gaylor died 18 July 1865 Brooklyn, Kings Co. N.Y. age 57 yrs, seven months and eight days. She was buried in Greenwood Cem. Bklyn. Last address was 122 Union St., (death certif.). Her father-in-law Philip Gaylor was also reinterred in Greenwood in 1865 acc. to D. Stenn. Her dau. Kate M. Gaylor Bow also buried Greenwood with several other relatives. Greenwood Cem. is located at 25th St. and 5th Ave. Bklyn, Zip 11232. Ph. 718 768 7300. Jany 198, David Stenn visited Greenwood plot and found that Eurilla and Wm H. Bow has a nice modern gravestone. Hiram and Sallie Gaylor's stone is an old one lying on the ground, picture difficult to read dates and inscription. Other broken stones lying on ground in plot, cannot read names.

Obit. for Sally Gaylor July 19, 1865 Bklyn Daily Eagle. She died Tuesday eve. July 18, wf of the late hiram Gaylor, aged 57. The rlatives and friends of the family and of the sons-in-law W.H. and W.A. Bow are respectfully invited to attend the funeral at 4 P.M. Thursday from No. 2 Clinton Place, continuation of Clinton St., without further notice. The remains will be taken to Greenwood Cemetery for interment.

This obit. is the first hint that child Jurille was actually Eurilla Gaylor who m. William H. Bow. I had long known that dau. Kate hed m. Wm A. Bow.
Union St. was near the East River and near President and Carroll Streets and cross Sts. were Van Brunt and Columbia Streets. There was also a Union Ave. in Bklyn.

Must do Bklyn 1865 census. done, nothing found

Sarah's father or grandfather was named Henry according to obituary of daughter Nellie Louise Gaylor. She does not appear in 1860 census in Bflo. Need to search Yonkers and Brooklyn for her Weaver relatives.

Widow Weber was sponsor at birth of her child, John Weber Galer so Weber as well as Weaver must be searched for her parentage. Who was this widow Weber? Did she sponsor any other children in that church? Must do. Henry Pieler was another sponsor. Did he sponsor other ch, same Church?

Two of the Gaylor children were baptized at Trinity Lutheran Church, Stone Arabia, one in 1828, the other in 1831. By this date, they were recorded with the Gaylor and Galer spelling.

The marriage certif. and death certificate of their daughter Nellie Louisa Gaylor, (Collins), (Clark), (Caldwell) gives the names of her parents.

Hiram Gaylor was in Montgomery Co. 1828 and 1831 according to birth of children there, then moved to Albany as a married man in 1831/2. He probably moved with with his father and brother James. He stayed in Albany until 1851, and again appears there in 1854. His whereabouts in 1852/1853 are unknown, but on census record of 1855, he stated he had been in Erie Co. NY one yr.

Interesting to note that several Gibsons had marriages in the same church in Buffalo where Hiram´s daughter Catherine was married, see Philip´s narrative for possible surnames of wife Margaret; also one Hiram Fox married Elizabeth Stebbins Oct. 1852 in the same church. Philip´s dau. Catherine Fox had a son Hiram. These possible relatives might indicate that Hiram Gaylor followed relatives to Buffalo.

Nellie Louisa (Gaylor) (Collins) (Clark) (Caldwell´s) obituary in The Brooklyn Daily Eagle Nov. 4 or 5, 1904, states that her grandfather was Gen. Henry Weaver who was killed in the Rev. War. This could not be accurate because her mother, Sarah Weaver, was born 1805 or 1807/8 (census), and was perhaps the grandaughter of a man who served in the Rev. It would seem that a man named Henry Weaver was father or grandfather of Sarah unless she had a maternal grandfather named Henry .... The obit. was probably prepared by daughter Edith or Nellie. Daughter Nellie Collins (Baker) (Fisher) would likely have been a great granddaughter of a man having Rev. service. The elusive Henry Weaver would likely have been born by 1760´s or earlier The rank of the ancestor who served in the Rev. remains to be proved. Could Sarah Weaver have had a father Henry who was killed in the war 1812?

Descendant Mora Bow de Ybarrando indicated there was a Weaver ancestor that was a General in the War of 1812, no first name given. Weaver Gen´y by Clement Weaver mentions a Weaver known as General, but does not follow his line.

Nellie Gaylor Caldwell´s obituary also stated that she resided in Buffalo for a short time. She was in Buffalo in 1855 census, 6 or 7 yrs of age. Confirming this, was the marriage of Nellie Gaylor´s sister Catharine to Wm A. Bow in Buffalo in 1855 at St. Paul´s Episc. Ch. and Helen Bow Segasti´s statement that her ancestor Catharine Gaylor Bow was raised in Bflo. Nellie Gaylor was also in Bflo, abt 1890, chaperoning her two daughters who were performing in vaudeville, but not residing there to my knowledge.

Sarah Weaver was very likely to have been from one of the Palatine families of 1710, since three of those Weaver/Weber families settled in the Mohawk Valley area, Niclaus, Jacob Weber, and Widow Ottila Weberin. These three families were listed together in Holland on Capt. Jno. Untank´s ship in the 5th party. In the Stone Arabia churchbook, Johann Geog Nicolaus Weber and and Johann Nicel. H. Weber were listed, (Ref: Jones). It would be necessary to search 3 or 4 intervening generations before the connection could be found. Jones mentions that it is difficult to separate the many Weaver/Weber Palatine families.

The Gaylor or Weaver family were probably related to Henry Pieler and Wd Weber who may have had husband John Weber since she was sponsor at the christening of John Weber Gaylor in 1831. (Ref: Stone Arabia Luth Ch.). (Be alert for Bieler and Kieler variant sp.).

A search of the name Henry Weaver in book on NYS Rev. War was not productive in finding a Henry Weaver of high rank.
A search of DAR lineage books found only a Henry Weaver of Pa. who might fit one killed in Rev.

1860 Albany census, p. 804, Nicholas Weaver 53 yrs b. NY, salesman, wf Fanny 47 yrs, b. NY and ch. Wm H. 26, James E. 24, Jane F. 19, Juliete 16, Misina 14, Louisa L. 6, all b. NY listed 6 houses away from James Gayler, bro. of Hiram. This was perh. bro. of Sarah.

1855-56 no Hiram or Sarah listed in Albany.

Since Hiram moved frequently, one could assume that he rented his abode. No property was listed for him on the 1850 census. Arbor Hill in Albany is still scenic in 1989. Many cemeteries have been removed to make room for growth of city.

Note: Was Sarah A. Gaylor at 56 Union St. in 1852 our lady? In 1834, one Stephen Weaver had a father who resided at 51 Union St. His one yr old child buried from father's house.

Note that Oliver and Eliza Bow who were buried in the same cem. lot in Greenwood Cem. with the Gaylor and Bow families lived in Albany in 1850. This indicates that the Bow family knew the Gaylor family before daughter Kate married William Bow.

EURILLA GAYLOR AND WILLIAM H. BOW

9. Eurilla Gaylor was d/o Hiram (Philip1) and Sarah Weaver Gaylor. This is based on the 1865 obit. of her mother Sally Gaylor that stated that she had sons in law W.H. and W.A. Bow. William H. and Eurilla Bow were buried in Greenwood Cemetery with Phillip, Hiram and Sally (Weaver) Gaylor as well as Kate Gaylor Bow, wife of Wm A. Bow. The gravestone of Wm H. and Eurilla Bow is in excellent condition as of January 1998. WILLIAM H. BOW died Aug. 29 1881 in his 59th year, EURILLA A. BOW died Nov. 4 1896 in her 69th year. Shall we know each other there.

Greenwood Cemetery record says that Eurilla Bow was b. 19 April 1828 and died 4 Nov. 1896, Bklyn.
Hiram and Sally Gaylor had a child Jirolle/Jurille who was born 20 March 1828. See p 28 May 1828, Stone Arabia, N.Y. Trinity Luth. Ch. #4404. Jurille was not with the family 1850 or 1855 census. May have been the female 10-14 in 1840 census.

Jurille could be a corruption of the name Eurilla since the church record was extracted from the original record. The birthdate for Eurilla is a month off from the birth of Jurille and needs clarification.

I would expect that Jurille/Eurilla may have married before 1850 census.

Eurilla Bow in Greenwood cem. was married to Wm H. Bow b. ca 1823 Troy N.Y. and d. 29 Aug. 1881 Bottom Lake N.Y. He was buried in Greenwood Cem. also in the Bow/Gaylor lot. Also buried this lot was Oliver Bow b. 1798 hartford CT, d. 18 Dec 1868 Bklyn, N.Y. and wf Eliza b. 1805, died 10 june 1895, poss. at Wash. D.C. These were prob. the parents of Wm H. Bow. Oliver and Elijah, father of Wm A. Bow (who m. Kate Gaylor) were prob. brothers.

Oliver not found CT 1992 IGI.
There was a Wm H. Bow in Albany 1850 aged 27, no wife with him. His age fits the husb. of Eurilla Gaylor.

Could she have had a previous husband Hubbard?

1860 one Catherine Bow b. Ire., servant living with Scland family, appears on p. 610, same ward and div. and quite close to William and Eurilla Bow. Not related unless she had been married.

Need 1870 and 1880 census.

The death certif. #6986 Los Angeles California of Eurilla Bow who m. David C. Decker says that she was b. 8 May 1874 Bklyn NY, d. 21 April 1944 age 69 yrs, 11 mo, 3 days, bur. Moravian Cem. This info contradicts my family info. that Eurilla Bow was d/o William Bow and Kate Gaylor. apparently my father Homer Baker was not aware that two different Wm Bows marr. 2 of the gaylor sisters.

CATHARINE M. GAYLOR AND WILLIAM A. BOW

10. Catharine M. Gaylor was d/o Hiram Gaylor (Philip1) and Sarah Weaver. She was born 1835 or 1838 (census) and died 9 Feb. 1877, Bklyn, bur. Greenwood cem. Bklyn, (718/768-7300 Lot 15984, section 164 (death certif., Grrenwood cem. rec., and Helen Bow Segasti).

(IGI concurs, see m. rec. 13 March 1990 JR, M 537441 0540).

Bflo newspaper listed her as marrying William H. Bow; Early Settlers NYS by Foley, p. 690, newscopy at Bflo Hist. Society. William was b. about 1831 acc. to census, d. 29 Dec. 1904, bur. Evergreen Cem. Bklyn.

Agrees with Helen Bow Segasti´s statement that Gaylor family resided in Buffalo for a time and obit. of Catherine´s sister Nellie Louisa Gaylor (Collins), (Clark), Caldwell which states Nellie Louisa resided Bflo for a time.

Wm A. Bow was s/o Elijah Bow and Sally Lawton acc. to death certif. He had left Bklyn and resided for a short time in Watertown acc. to death certif.

Bow family was from Watertown, NY acc. to Helen Bow Segasti. In this country before Rev. acc. to Helen Bow Segasta phone convers. 1987.

Note that Oliver and wf Eliza Bow were buried in the same cem. lot with Kate Gaylor Bow and her parents. Oliver b. 1798 Hartford CT, d. 1868 Bklyn. Eliza b. 1805 Bklyn, d. 1895 Wash. D.C. This Oliver and Eliza were found in 1850 census in the city of Albany NY with ages matching. Oliver and Elijah Bow may have been brothers. Wm A. Bow, husband of Kate Gaylor and Wm H. Bow husb. of Eurilla Gaylor Bow were prob. 1st cousins. It would appear that the Bow family knew the Gaylor family in Albany before Kate´s marriage.

NELLIE LOUISA GAYLOR AND WILLIAM ~~G. OR P. OR~~ T. COLLINS

Nellie Louisa Gaylor was d/o Hiram Gaylor (Philip1) and Sarah A. Weaver. She was born ca 1847/8 Albany Co. N.Y., acc. to 1850 and 1855 census when she appeared with her parents. These are the truest dates i have found for her birth. She was called Louisa and I will use that name to differentiate her from her dau. with the same name.

Bklyn death certif. #21274 Nellie Louise Caldwell born in City of Albany, Albany Co. N.Y.; d/o Hiram Gaylor and wife Sarah Weaver, who were both born U.S. Age as 46 yr, 5 mo, 17 days (incorrect). Married, housewife, residing in private house. She resided N.Y.C. for 35 yrs. Dr. Wm H. Bates, 137 Clinton St. Bklyn, attended her from June 29 to Nov 2. She died Bklyn, Kings Co. N.Y., Nov. 2, 1904 at 11:30 PM. from Uraemic Coma due to chronic nephritis. Undertaker was H. C. Pouch, 305 Adams St. She was buried Nov. 5, Evergreen Cem, Whispering Grove Section.
She purchased the cemetery plot when married to her 3rd husband Charles Caldwell 1898, reck. (Ref: Death certif.;cem. rec.; family agreement at purch. of cem. plot).

Obituary of Nellie Louise Caldwell in Bklyn Daily Eagle, Nov 4 1904, 3. After a long illness, Nellie L. the wife of Charles P. Caldwell and granddaughter of General Henry Weaver who was killed in the Revolutionary War, died Wed. eve at her late residence, 33 Prospect Place. She was born at Albany, N.Y. and resided for a short time in Bflo, but of late yrs had made B´klyn her residence. She had been for a number of years a member of the First Reformed Church on Seventh Ave. where she took an active interest in the Women´s Missionary Soc´y, serving on the Committee for City Mission work. Her kindly face and her generous efforts in good works will be affectionately remembered by a host of friends outside of her own family, who will sincerely mourn her loss. Her two daughters, Mrs. John C. Davidson and Mrs. Nellie L. Baker, wd of the late Charles H. Baker, survive her and will ever remember her as a kind and loving mother.

(She must have been great grand dau. of man in Rev. War because her mother Sarah Weaver was born 1807. Otherwise, it would have to mean War 1812)?

> Nellie´s father Hiram Gaylor, a grocer in 1850, was s/o Phillip and Mgt. Gaylor who were in Stone Arabia, Montgomery Co. area in 1802. Acc. to rec. of Trinity Luth. Church of Stone Arabia, Hiram was bpt. in 1805. Philip moved to Albany in 1830´s, (City Directory).

Expect this family were 1709 Palatines, not proven. The name was also spelled Gehler, Geler, Kehler, Keler in church records. (An Adam Kehler had a son Philip, Bpt. in a NYC Luth. Ch. about the right time for our Philip. It is not known if he was the same Philip).

Nellie Louisa Gaylor marr. first abt 1868/~~70~~ to William T Collins, probably in Bklyn, or possibly in Yonkers. Bklyn was not yet part of NYC until 1898. She would have been abt 20/23 yrs old at marr.

Homer Baker Sr., grandson of Louisa, stated that Nellie Louisa Gaylor's 1st husband Collins died, that she married 2nd a man by name of Clark, was divorced, 3rd marriage to Charles P. Caldwell, (proven by certificate). Perhaps, she divorced Collins, also. Caldwell is not listed in Evergreen cemetery with her. Perhaps he was bur. with a different wife.

He said his name was Edward Collins, but this is not correct acc. to marr. and death certif. of Homer´s mother Nellie Collins Jr. or with marr. certif. of Irene´s mother Edith Willetta Collins.

1865, July 18, her mother Sally Weaver Gaylor died and bur. in Bklyn. What waas date of 1865 census? Try to find out from Bklyn source since we know the address as 122 Union St.

1870 may not be correct family but many coincident names.
1870, Bklyn, Series M593, Roll 947, Ward 4, p. 370, house visitation 619. William Collins, b. NY, 28 yrs (for birth ca 1842), MACHINIST, wf Nelly, 31 yrs (for birth 1839 wrong date), b. NY, dau. Nellie, age 3, b. NY, dau. Winnetta, age 1, b. NY. They resided in a boarding house with head of family Louis Van Pelt. Get Van Pelt wf. No markings in columns on the right.
This indicates that ch. Nellie was b. ca 1867 and Winnetta abt 1869. Also that mother Nelly age 31 was b. 1839 which does not fit, making her 10 yrs older than we know her to be. Our Nelly was more likely closer to 21 yrs in 1870.
(Our Edith Willetta Collins was b. 31 March 1872 acc. to her grson John Howard. Her age of 20 in 1892 marr. supports this birthyear. This seems to refute the above family belonging here, but still have not found birth certifs. for the ch. Edith or Nellie Collins in Bklyn records. Nothing found 1874).

In 1870, Ward 4 was bounded by Sand St, Bridge St, Myrtle Ave and Fulton St. or Ave. This was directly inland going East from Ward 1 that was by the River. S. Parkes Cadman Plaza later stood in this area.

1873, Brooklyn City Dir.
Several William Collins appear; one sewing machines, home 46 Smith St. This was probably our William. (If he was also William Henry Collins, s/o Henry, he moved West of Gowanus Bay and south of his previous home since the present Smith St. is so located). Smith St. is close to the Old First Reformed Church to which Louisa and her dau,. Nellie were members.

This is believed to be our family in 1880, based on dau. Edith Collins signature as Edith W. as witness to sister's marriage and her dau. Irene's statement that her middle name was Willetta.
1880 census soundex and actual, 450 Fulton St. in Bklyn E.D. 15, sheet 35, line 7, William T. Collins 34 yrs, agent sewing machines, b. NY, father b. CT, mother b. N.Y., wf Nellie L. 27 yrs b. This would indicate that father was b. 1846, mother was b. 1853 and dau. Nellie was b. 1869 when mother was 16 yrs old and dau. Edith b. ca 1871. Mother may have fudged her age here since we know that she was 7 yrs old on 1855 Bflo census for birth ca 1848 which I consider to be the most accurate date. Mother also appeared as 3 yrs in 1850 census with parents in Albany. I did not copy ward #, expect it was ward 3 or 4 at that time.

1904 City Dir. Charles Caldwell resided 33 Prospect Place Bklyn, was employed Leather, 71 Gold St, Manhattan.
This was the year that his wf Nellie Gaylor died.

1910, dau. Nellie Collins Baker rented the brownstone house at 33 Prospect Place and operated it as a boarding house. Chas. Caldwell was not with her 1910.

Do more directories for him later.

Apparently Nellie was instrumental in the vocation of her two young daus. Nellie and Edith in Variety/Vaudeville Theatre, since they performed at a young age. They were billed as the Collins sisters. Nellie Sr. chaperoned her daughters as they travelled on the Erie Canal Theatre circuit.

Nellie Louisa Gaylor Caldwell was ill for a time and her dau. Edith Collins Davidson resided with her. Grdau. Irene Davidson Howard described her as wearing frilly clothing, and was a martinet, quite demanding.

WM HENRY COLLINS line poss. husband of Louisa Gaylor.

Since William T. Collins of 1880 census record that his father was born CT and his mother born NY, I searched every Collins family on earlier Bklyn and NYC census, (230 of them), for a Collins family with these places of birth. The only one which fit was Henry Whitlock Collins who had son William in 1860 having the same occupation as William with wf Nellie in 1870. This is good evidence.

1860 census, Ward 1, Div. 2, William 18 yrs, b. NY, apprentice Machinist, listed in home of Henry Collins who was b. Ct. wf Ethelinda, b. NY.

m 1867 to None

Wm Henry Collins bur. 1904 Greenwood Cem. with wf Eliz. Moore was s/o Henry Collins and Ethelinda Stevens. Henry was b. in CT which fits with William of the 1880 census having a father b. CT.

Extensive census research for William Collins, I found William Henry Collins b. 30 June 1842 in NYC, whose father Henry Whitlock Collins resided there in 1850. Wm´s death certif. 21298 says f. b. N.H., but census says he was b. CT. Wm´s mother was Ethelinda Micherson Stevens b. N.Y.C. acc. to death certif. (Ref: 1860, 1870 and 1880 soundex census). He died a widower at 380 Bergen St. Bklyn (a 3 fam. flat) on Nov. 2 1904, age 63 yrs 4 mo 3d. from cerebral hemorrhage. He was an Engineer who lived his entire life in NYC. He was bur. Nov. 5 1904 Greenwood Cem. Bklyn with wf. Elizabeth Moore b. 21 Jan 1850, d. 8 June 1893. Thus it would appear that he divorced Louisa if this was her collins husb. This Wm´s mother and bro. were also buried Greenwood Cem.

After doing extensive research, I became discouraged and dropped the Collins search because Wm Henry´s being buried with a different wf does not fit with our family story. One would need to find when Wm m. this Eliz.

POSSIBLE ANCESTRY OF PHILIP GAYLOR AND MARGARET ?LASHER

The Gaylor and Weaver family of whom we treat probably were of the Palatine families who immigrated to NY in 1709/10.

The name Gaylor is not a common one. Philip's father would probably have been born 1725/1765, (calculated from age of Philip), and thus of age to serve in Rev. War. A search must include variant spelling of the name.

The only birth that I have found for a Philip of the correct age was the son of Adam and Mgt. KEHLER, christened 17 March 1765, N.Y.N.Y. Lutheran Church, (C510571, serial # 1971, IGI). I have no proof which might link our Philip to N.Y.C. at that early date.

One Adam KELLER s/o Henrich Keller and Christina was chr. 14 July 1816 Palatine, Stone Arabia, Mont Co NY. Batch 7307816 Serial 91 IGI, FHC.

One Adam KELLER, s/o Caspar Keller and Cath. Shoemaker, b. or bpt 30 June 1833 Ref. Prot. Dutch Ch., German Flats, Herkimer Co., NY. Another date for birth 29 Feb. 1833.
One Adam Keller m. Eva Kern 20 Oct 1863 Madison St. German Presb. Ch. NYNY.

The best clue to a family relationship for Margaret or Philip is the fact that HENRY LASHER and wife Elizabeth were sponsors at the baptism of Elizabeth, daughter of our Philip and Mgt GELER in 1814 at Trinity Lutheran Church at Stone Arabia, NY.

Lasher Lineage by Powers p. 135 and 172 lists a Henry Lasher 1765-1845 m Eliz. Bauder 1768-1849. He was s/o Garret, b. 1732 and Cath. Dillenbach Lasher. Their ch. were all bp. Stone Arabia Lutheran Ch. Their son Henry Jr. b. 1790. Henry Sr. had a possible daughter Margaret. Time span seems a litle short for their dau. Mgt to be m. by 1800/02. Need to search Bauder Geny and Dallenbachs, Dillenbecks in America.

One Henry LASHER resided next door to our Philip GAYLOR in 1810 in Palatine, NY. This was prob. Henry Lasher Sr or Jr mentioned above.

Gibson is another possibility. PHILLIP KELLER and MARGARET GIBSON were sponsors at baptism of Margaret, d/o Frederick KELLER and Margaret Stillenner Dec. 23, 1799 at Fonda Reformed Church, Caughnawaga, N.Y. (#2536) (Barker diskette Palatines of Mont. Co. NY). Since the name Philip, in relation to the GAYLOR/KELER surname is so unusual, it is possible that he was our Philip. (ck out Caughnawaga histories). Was Mgt Gibson, wf or soon to be wf?

IGI does not list any approp. Mgt. Gibson birth. Jacob GIBSON and Polly DEMING were in Mont. Co. 1785, at Currytown in 1792, a John GIBSON and Cath. WASSON were in Palatine 1800.

Did Hiram, s/o Philip Gaylor, follow the Gibson family to Buffalo 1854. Both families were connected in Buffalo with the St. Paul's Episcopal Church. This is a different denomination for the Gaylor family. Since Hiram was only in Buffalo a short time, they may not have belonged to any church when dau. Catherine was married in 1855. Many people, not members, were married in that church at that time.

Catharine, b. ca 1794/1800, d/o Philip KALER, (believed to be our Philip), married Jacob C. Fox 1820 Minden Twnship, Ft. Plain, NY, Reformed Dutch Ch; Cath. Kaler Fox joined Stone Arabia Luth. Ch. 1823 as did her bro. James in 1820. Jacob was s/o Christopher Wm Fox and Mgt. Nellis, (Fox Bk read by Nicolls). Also saw Catherine's name spelled as Koehler on IGI. Fox family probably originally Fuchs. Catharine Kaler Fox named a son Hiram Fox.

In the Compendium of Early Mohawk Families by Marlys B. Penrose, 1990:
Friedrich GEHLER m. Margaretha Zoeller Apr 23, 1793 at Ref. Dutch Ch. Palatine, Stone Arabia: 198. (Batch C51092-1, IGI).
Friderich GELER and Margaret ____ had son Jacob, b. April 11, 1794 (Trinity Luth Ch Stone Arabia: 82), Ser.# 01021-9. Sponsors for Jacob were Nicholaus WEBER and Elisabet. Note that our Philip was also listed as Geler in the same Trinity Luth. church in 1805 and 1814 when his children were born.
Friderich is a good possibility to have been brother of Philip, belonging to the same church where Philip was a member in 1802. This alerts us to the possibility that our Philip Gayler may have been in the area by this time.

Does the ch. records have more on Nich. and Eliz. Weber?

FOX
The name Fox/Fuchs had var. sp. in the Palatine area.
The Name Collier sometimes written as Caljer, Kalyer, Colyer, and Gallier, Gallinger. There is a mss of this family at Dept. of Hist. Fonda NY Desc. of Jochem Caljer by Herbert Seversmith. They were also at Stone Arabia by 1765. I have not searched this family.

The earliest dates I find for a name variant of Gaylor was in the 3rd London Eng. List of Palatines 1709 taken at St. Catherine's 2 June 1709, V. 2, No. D 68 publ. in Book of Names especially related to the Early Palatines and The First settlers in the Mohawk Valley by L.D. MacWelthey in 1933. John Simon Kehler, husbandman and Vinedresser, age 42, with 4 sons 12, 10, 8 and 5 yrs as well as daughters 5 and 2 yrs. IF this was our progenitor there must be at least four Kehler male lines to follow to find our line.

Also in this list Jacob Koehler, Lutheran, Linen Weaver, 54 yrs with sons 16, 10 and 1/2 yrs and daughters 18, 14 , 12, 10 and 4 yrs.

In V. 4 p 205, 1778 Troops captured at Ft. Montgomery - Lt. Keyler. Must find out more abt this man, (MacWelthy, POW p. 119).

The name Kyler/Cuyler and Giller and Keller are also similar.

The name Collier/CALYER/Gallier is one family that came in the 1600's to Am. Author Silversmith wrote Desc. of Jochem Caljer; a copy is at Montgomery Co. Dept. of History, Fonda N.Y.

Marriage records before 1699 lists a CT Family Gaylar/Gayler and Gaylord, all at Windsor CT mid 1600's.

Montgomery Co. Families by Barker lists a lot abt the Keller Family.

PROVEN GAYLOR LINE

PHILIP GAYLER/GAYLOR AND MARGARET ?LASHER

Gen. 1
1. Philip Gayler was born ca 1765-1784, (1810 census, age 26/45). Born by ca 1780 since dau. Catherine was born 1800 (Fox Geny). He was probably born in this country, (no foreign born parents listed by son Hiram 1850 census). He probably died 1834/5 in the City of Albany, NY, when he disappeared from City Directories. Wife Margaret was listed there as a widow in 1838 living at his address, 53 N. Lansing St. Philip was buried in Albany and reinterred July 1865 in Greenwood Cem. Bklyn, Lot 15984, Section 164. His son Hiram was reinterred from Albany at the same time. Hiram's wf Sally d. July 1865 and is also buried there as were their daughters Catherine Gaylor Bow and Eurilla Gaylor Bow and her husband Wm H. Bow.

Philip's marriage by 1794-1800 is calculated by the age of the young female (?Catharine), in his household in the 1810 census.

Philip's wife Margaret was born 1765/1784 (26/45 yrs 1810 census), b. by 1780/8 (dau. b. 1800). Margaret was born in this country, (1850 census, son Hiram). Margaret was alive 1838 in Abany. Philip was a married man with a wife Margaret in Sept. 1802 when his son James was listed in the Birth and Christening records of Trinity Lutheran Church, Stone Arabia, Montgomery Co. N.Y. The name of town of Stone Arabia was later changed to Palatine. In that church Philip's name was spelled various ways - Keler, Kehler, Geler, Gehler, Caler. Other possible spellings are Kaler, Kieler, Koehler. Keller is also a possible variant according to professional Genealogists. Gaylerd or Gaylord is another possibility if census taker or other clerk wrote the name in this fashion as was done when grandson was listed as James Gaylord when he m. Stevenson in Schenectady.

Births/Bpt. of this church begin Dec. 1751 except for 1780-1788. The church was burned in Johnson's Raid in 1780.
There are no marr. recs from 1751-1768 or from May 1772-Oct. 1774 or from 1780-1788 or from 1816-1826; a few from 1826-1833; none from 1830-1840.
There are no burial or death recs 1751-1768 or 1770-1810 or from 1814-1844.
Some affairs of this church are listed in Schoharie Lutheran church bks, prob. by Pastor Berkenmeyer or pastor Peter Nicholas Sommer.
I need to get pp of this bk at Orlando. Didnt copy title but it is abt Lutheran trinity Church Stone Arabia N.Y.

1802-1814, Trinity Lutheran Church records Stone Arabia, Palatine, Montgomery Co. NY list births of James Keler, 18 Sept 1802 and John Kehler, 8 July 1808, born to Philip Keler/Kehler and wife Margaret. Also, the births of Hiram, 6 Dec 1805 and Elizabet, 10 Sept 1814 to Philip and Margaret Geler. Eliz. was chr. 23 Oct. 1814. There is no doubt this is our Philip Gaylor.

(A noted Palatine authority, Henry Z. Jones, states that variant spelling of the name Gaylor may include the earlier German spelling of Kehler, Keller or Kohler.

The Reformed Dutch churches of Stone Arabia and Fort Plain were interchangeable as to members and in the church cemetery).

The name of the wife of Philip, and those of his children James and Hiram, are consistent in the Stone Arabia Lutheran Church records 1802-1814, (LDS film #1204984, Vosburgh church transcriptions), Albany City Directories, and 1850 Albany census.

To further connect this family:
1850 Census lists son James Gaylor of Albany as born in Montgomery Co.
The death certificate of Hiram's daughter Nellie Louisa Gaylor, b. Albany, (then married to 3rd husband Chas. Caldwell), lists her parents as Hiram Gaylor and Sarah Weaver.
Hiram's children were baptized as Gaylor and Galer in the Stone Arabia Church 1828 and 1831. Wife Sarah Weaver was called Sally in the church record. Sponsors at the christening of Hiram's son, John WEBER Galor was WIDOW WEBER and HENRICH PIELER. Was wd Weber, mother or grmother of Sarah Weaver? (The name Pieler could also be Bieler in other records according to Henry K. Jones, author of Palatines 1710. Since dau. Catherine was listed on IGI at marr. as Kieler it raises the poss. that Henry Pieler could have been Henry KIELER).

Montgomery Co. was formed 1772. State census this county avail. 1835 State lib. at Albany. Too late.
1800 Philip not identified on census. It is possible that he was not head of household in 1800. There were Gaylors in 1800 in NYS census. Ck out Philip Cuyler in Albany Co 1800, `140:2 as a possibility.

In 1800, one Henry Lasher appeared in Mont. Co. census 7:4 along with many other Lasher families. This prob. Henry and Eliz. Bauder Lasher.

1810 census, p. 61.
Philip Gayler age 26-45, was listed at PALATINE, Montgomery Co. N.Y. with female age 26-45, for birth between 1765-84. Also, 3 males under 10 yrs, (1800-1809) and one female 10-16 (1794-1800) in his household.
The males are accounted for in christening records of Stone Arabia Luth. Ch. The female is accounted for when Catharine born 1800, joined the same ch. as a married woman in 1823.

Philip Gayler and HENRY LASHER appeared next to each other on this census between Christopher C. FOX and George Patter/Potter. Others nearby were John Eisinford, John Danolds, Malachi Potter, Andrew Gay, John and Henry Grames, Geo. Loucks. John C. FOX was listed 8 houses away. Also listed nearby was John Lasher, unidentified. Fox was obviously related to Philip's son in law Jacob. C. Fox, s/o Christopher Wm Fox and Mgt. Nellis. (Is the Gay name another variant of Gaylor)?

Other neighbors in 1810 were Shults, Waggoner, Powel. In 1810, Hiram Gaylor was 5 yrs old.

(One Christopher C. Fox was b. 1774, s/o Chris W. Fox of Palatine and Eliz. Hess, d/o John Hess. Chris C. m. Margaret Gramps/Crim by 1795. He had a bro. John.
Another Chris C. was b. 1774 was s/o Chris Philip Fox and 2nd wf Cath. Hess. Wd Catharine Hess had a prev. m. to Jacob WEAVER. He also had a brother John. Note that Philip's gr. grch. James H. Gaylor m. Hannah Hess, d/o William and Katherine Wagner Hess many yrs later in Albany. Also, note that Philip's son Hiram Gaylor m. Sarah Weaver.

1810 Palatine, Henry LASHER p. 61, (next door to Philip Gaylor). 2 m under 10, 1m 16-26, 1m over 45; 1f under 10, 2f 10-16, 2f 16-26, 1f 26-45. If over 45 yrs, b. by 1765 or prior. This must be Henry b. 1765 who m Eliz. Bauder. Could be father of Mgt?
John Lasher also p. 61.321-2 1-11.
Conradt Lasher appears on p. 63, prob. bro. of Henry. In 1800 Henry Lasher was in Mont. Co. 7:4 and Conradt 22:4. Several other Conreadts in Columbia Co.
One Lasher Geny I read by Powell did not have a Mgt of age to marry Phillip Gaylor.

1810 Palatine.
P. 62 Jacob, Jeremiah and HENRY PEELER appear between Baily, Eaker, Brine and Nihoof. Also John Crous.
p. 63 Frederick WEAVER, Conradt Lasher, Henry Hart.
p. 64 John Weaver.
These Weavers may be a clue as to Sarah's family, since they resided so close to Gaylor family.

P. 72, Openheim, a nearby town, Christopher, Daniel and David Fox. Jacob and Daniel WEAVER were also listed on this page.

1820/1830 census, Philip Gaylor NOT identified. Perhaps will be found under variant sp. of names.
Look for him around Minden, Ft. Plain N.Y. where his dau. Cath. was married in 1820.
In 1820, one Philey Gaylor appeared in Bloomfield, Ont. Co. NY.

State census for Albany avail. 1825, 1835. Must do 1835 for Philip or Mgt which might tell what county in which they were born.

CITY DIRECTORY, Albany, N.Y. PHILIP GAYLOR.
1828-1830 No Gaylor in Dir.
1831/2 N. Lansing St. Also Gaylor and DENNICK,
Wheelwrights at 111 N. Market St. bus. address.
1832 53 N. Lansing St. and son James appears at same address, also a wheelwright.
1833/1834 Philip and son James Gaylor.
1835 only son James Gaylor appears. Philip poss. dead.
1837 2 listings for James Gaylor, N. Lansing St, one a brewer, one a wheelwright (prob. same person).
1838 Margaret Gaylor appears as a widow at 53 N. Lansing St.

Son James Gaylor was listed at the same address with Philip in Albany City Directory. On the 1850 census, James was listed as born in Montgomery Co. NY.

My Father Homer Baker Sr. and his cousin Irene Davidson Howard, great grandchildren of Hiram, said the surname was Gaylord, yet the death certificate of Hiram's daughter, Nellie Louisa Gaylor (Collins) (Clark) (Caldwell), states the name as Gaylor. Gaylor, with it's variant spelling is consistent with other known records. James, s/o Philip Gaylor was listed as gaylord when he married in Schenectady. Wm T. Collins deposition as to his wf nellie lists her as nee Gaylord. The greenwood cem. records list some of the Gaylor relatives buried in the same plot as Gaylor and Gaylord.

My grandmother, Nellie Collins (Baker) (Fisher) claimed her lineage as Holland Dutch, as did her sister Edith Collins Davidson and some members of the Bow family cousins. I do not know whether she referred ~~to Collins~~, Gaylor or Weaver lineage.

I did not find Philip Gaylor in Albany First Luth. Ch. rec. Other Lutheran churches not searched.

I searched the Albany City Directories beginning 1828 for the name Gaylor since Nellie Louisa Gaylor, dau. of Hiram, was born in Albany according to her death certificate and personal knowledge of family members. At the time I searched these directories, I did not know the variant spellings of the name, must do in future. The name Gaylor appears first at Albany in 1831/2. Philip and James Gaylor at 53 N. Lansing St., Hiram Gaylor at 55 N. Lansing St., Wheelwright, and Gaylor and Dennick, Wheelwrights, business at 111 N. Market St. Since families tended to move with relatives, searching the name Dennick or Denyck might prove fruitful. Philip Gaylor's name does not appear after 1834 and wf Mgt was listed as a wd in 1837. (Need to ck out Isaac Dennick line, cannot find, try DeNyck).

Some of the early Albany cemeteries have disappeared with the growth of the city. Some of the graves were relocated. I have made only a preliminary search under name Gaylor, but have not found his original grave before being reinterred to Bklyn. I have not checked Montgomery Co. graves. (Did not search variant sp. in Albany cemeteries, must do).
Since the family resided at the N. Lansing St. address for several years, they may have owned the property. A Deeds search might prove productive.

HISTORY OF MONTGOMERY CO. AREA:

Shortly after 1711, a large number of German Palatinates settled in Schoharie and the Mohawk Valley on Government land. About the same time, a considerable number of Holland Dutch from Schenectady and vicinity also settled in Montgomery Co.
In Oct. 1723, the Stone Arabia Patent of 12,700 acres was granted to Garlock for the benefit of the Palatinates. Land Grants were distributed beginning in 1730 and almost all by 1762. Stone Arabia DISTRICT was formed March 1772.

On March 8, 1773, the name of Stone Arabia, N.Y. was changed to PALATINE. It became a TOWN in March 1778 which included all of the territory between Little Falls and the Noses. It extended from the Mohawk River to Canada. Between 1797 and 1827, several towns were taken off including OPPENHEIM to Fulton Co. in 1808, and EPHRATAH to Fulton Co. in 1827. N.Y.S. Gazetteer by French mentions Stone Arabia, Palatine Bridge and Palatine Church, all within the Town of PALATINE, which was first settled in 1713. The limits of the town included the larger portion of the Stone Arabia Patent.

German was the language taught in the first schools. The early records of the settlement are lost. The Reformed Protestant Dutch Church at Stone Arabia is one of the oldest in the valley. The records of the church begin in 1739. A LUTHERAN Church which was built in 1770, burned in 1780. The LUTHERAN (stone) Church was built in 1770 at Palatine Church. At the time that French published his Gazetteer, ?1860's, there were only 3 churches in town, 2 Lutheran and one Dutch, (Ref: French).

PALATINE is in the Mohawk Valley which was heavily settled by the German Palatine Immigrants of 1710. According to The Palatine Families of New York by Henry Z. Jones many of the descendants of these Palatine families claimed Holland Dutch ancestry falsely. The notion came about because many had fled to Holland before emigrating to this country.

Trinity Lutheran Church, Stone Arabia records: Birth and Bpt. recorded 1751 to present excepting 1780-1788; marriage records, none 1751-1768, none May 1772-Oct. 1774, none 1780-88, none 1816-1826, a few 1826-1833, none 1830-1840; deaths, burials, none 1751-1768, none 1770-1780, none 1780-1810, none 1814-1844.

Trinity Lutheran Church, Stone Arabia listed births of children named KELLER as early as 1756 to Andr Keller and Frena. Caspar Keller/Lisse "Lisa" Barbara were members of the Palatine Reformed Dutch Ch. of Stone Arabia, having children Bp. in 1764. Caspar Keller and Elis. had child there 1770. In Montgomery Co. several Keller men had children named Peter between 1764 and 1835, suggesting a patriarch of this name, (IGI).
Henrich Keller/Peggy were listed having a child Sally at Palatine, Stone Arabia in 1818, but the most authentic is this child's christening at Minden, Mont. Co. St. Paul's Luth. Ch. (Why did I put this in)?

IF Nellie Louisa Gaylor (Collins) (Clark)(Caldwell's) obit. was faulty and her grandfather who was killed in the Rev. was Henry Galler (Hist. Montg. CATHERINE KALER/GAYLOR AND JACOB CHRISTOPHER FOX

2. Catherine Gaylor, daughter of Philip (whom I believe to be the Philip1 of whom we treat) was b. 1800, d. 1 June 1883, (Fuchs book by Donald P. Fox, p. 27, #137 lists her as Galard); (female b. bet. 1794-1800 on 1810 census for Philip Gaylor). Her death tken from O. W. Bell's 1928 series on Fox family in the St. Johnsville Enterprise and News, read by Don Fox.

She was married 9 Jany 1820 at Reformed Dutch Church at Minden Township, Fort Plain, Mont. Co. N.Y. to Jacob C. Fox. Church rec. calls her Kaler; and as Kieler or Caler on IGI. This may have been father of Jacob.

She was listed as Catherine Kaler, d/o Philip, at Stone Arabia Reformed Ch. when accepted into membership Oct. 11, 1823 as wife of Jacob C. Fox. This is the same church that her brother James, s/o Philip Gaylor, joined 3 yrs earlier.

JAMES KELER/GAYLOR AND NANCY STEVENSON

3. James Gaylor was born 18 Sept. 1802, (ch. rec) Palatine Bridge, (cem. rec.), Montgomery Co. NY. (1855 census), His birth was recorded at Trinity Lutheran Church of Stone Arabia Montgomery Co. NY, (#1437), Montgomery Co. N.Y. He was listed as s/o Philip KELER and Margaret.

He died as James Gaylor, of senility, May 29, 1893, 93 yrs, 4 months, buried June 1 in Rural cem. Lot 89, section 26, Albany, NY. His last address was 94 Second St. Albany. To whom interred W.J. and J.H. Gaylor. Cem. listing gives his place of birth. (FHC Reel 415534, Rural Cem. D-H). (Get obits of James and his ch. for Weaver and Gaylor clues).

James GALER, son of Philip, was accepted into membership of Stone Arabia Reformed Church Sept. 30, 1820, (a different church). Catherine Kaler, dau. of Philip, wf of Jacob C. Fox, joined this church in 1823. I believe she was his sister.

James Gaylord married Nancy Stevenson 7 Jany 1832 at St. George's Episcopal Church, Schenectady, (Ch. rec.). The Schenectady Cabinet newspaper, Wed. Jan. 11, 1832 lists James Gaylord and Miss Nancy Stevenson, both of Albany, were married Sat. Eve. last by Rev. Mr. Proal. Would this church record have names of parents?

Gen. 2.

HIRAM GAYLOR AND SARAH WEAVER

4. Hiram Gaylor was the son of Philip and Mgt. Gayler (census spelling). Variant spelling for Philip in Stone Arabia church records was Kehler, Keler, Kaler, Geler, Gehler. Hiram was born 6 Dec. 1805 in Montgomery Co. N.Y. His birth was recorded at Trinity Luth. Ch. Stone Arabia, NY under name Geler.

Hiram died 7 Oct. 1856, 51 yrs, short obituary. Oct. 10, in Buffalo Morning Express states that funeral to be held Wednesday at his home 98 E. Seneca St., requests Albany and New York papers to please copy. It is obvious that the paper knew he was from Albany, but why should N.Y.C. papers copy? Did he have relatives in NYC? Early Settlers N.Y.S. by Foley, p. 514, lists death as listed above from records of Buffalo Hist. Society.
Certified Transcript of Death, no number, obtained Jany 1994 from City of Buffalo states address 92 Seneca St. incorrectly listed on place of birth line, died of peritonitis, physician D. White; undertaker, Kraft and Gray. Letter omitted date of death, unacceptable, inefficient, returned for replacement copy. Replacement copy modern handwriting gives death date but isn't certified. Need copy of original microfilm or ledger.

Hiram was buried in Albany N.Y., then exhumed and reinterred in July 1865 in Greenwood Cem. Bklyn, N.Y. (ph. 718 768 7300) abt the time his wife died and was buried there in Lot 15984, Section 164. His gravestone is still standing January 1998 and says HIRAM GAYLOR of Buffalo, died 7 Oct. 1856 aged 51 years ___, SALLIE GAYLOR HIS WIFE died July 18 1865 aged 57 years, then it looks like a 1 ___ rather than a 7 for the ?month, picture of stone not clear. Also reinterred there was his father Philip, listed as Gaylord; also Hiram and Sally's daughters Catherine Gaylor Bow and Eurilla Gaylor Bow and her husband William H. Bow. (Ref: David Stenn author of Clara Bow book. Need proof of Hiram's Albany burial).

Hiram was married by 1828, probably in Montgomery Co. N.Y. to Sarah/Sally Weaver who was born 10 Dec. 1807 per death certif. calculated. Her birth was in Montgomery Co. NY according to 1850/1855 census records which agree with birth 1807/1808.

Sally Gaylor death certif. Brooklyn, Kings Co. N.Y. #4188 died 18 July 1865 Kings Co. N.Y. age 57 yrs, seven months and eight days. Born U.S. She was buried in Greenwood Cem. Bklyn. Last address was 122 Union St. in 6th Ward. Death caused by Ovarian Dropsy, attending Dr. D. A. Dodge. Death certif. written as Gaylord and the d at the end crossed out on official certif. No undertaker or parents listed.

Her father-in-law Philip Gaylor was also reinterred in Greenwood in 1865 acc. to D. Stenn. Her dau. Kate M. Gaylor Bow also buried Greenwood with several other relatives. Greenwood Cem. is located at 25th St. and 5th Ave. Bklyn, Zip 11232. Ph. 718 768 7300. Jany 198, david Stenn visited Greenwood plot and found that Eurilla and Wm H. Bow has a nice modern gravestone. Hiram and Sallie Gaylor's stone is an old one lying on the ground, picture difficult to read dates and inscription. Other broken stones lying on ground in plot, cannot read names.

Obit. for Sally Gaylor listed July 19, 1865 Bklyn Daily Eagle. She died Tuesday eve. July 18, aged 57, wf of the late Hiram Gaylor. The relatives and friends of the family and of the sons-in-law W.H. and W.A. Bow are respectfully invited to attend the funeral at 4 P.M. Thursday from No. 2 Clinton Place, continuation of Clinton St., without further notice. The remains will be taken to Greenwood Cemetery for interment.

Sally's obit. is the proof that child Jurille in Stone Arabia Church record was abstracted incorrectly and should read Eurilla. She m. William H. Bow, prob. a cousin of her sister Catharine's husb. Wm A. Bow.

Union St. was near the East River and near President and Carroll Streets. Cross Sts. were Van Brunt and Columbia Streets. There was also a Union Ave. in Bklyn.

Must do Bklyn 1865 census.

Sarah's father or grandfather was named Henry according to obituary of daughter Nellie Louise Gaylor. She does not appear in 1860 census in Bflo. Need to search Yonkers and Brooklyn for her Weaver relatives.

Widow Weber was sponsor at birth of her child, so Weber as well as Weaver must be searched for her parentage. Who was this widow Weber? Did she sponsor any other children in that church? Must do. Henry Pieler was another sponsor. Did he sponsor other ch, same Church? Name Bieler prob same as Pieler

Two of the Gaylor children were baptized at Trinity Lutheran Church, Stone Arabia, one in 1828, the other in 1831. By this date, they were recorded with the Gaylor and Galer spelling.

The marriage certificate and death certificate of their daughter Nellie Louisa Gaylor, (Collins), (Clark), (Caldwell) gives the names of her parents.

Hiram Gaylor was in Montgomery Co. 1828 and 1831 according to birth of children there, then moved to Albany as a married man in 1831/2. He probably moved with with his father and brother James. He stayed in Albany until 1851, and again appears there in 1854. His whereabouts in 1852/1853 are unknown, but on census record of 1855, he stated he had been in Erie Co. NY one yr.

Interesting to note that several Gibsons had marriages in the same church in Buffalo where Hiram's daughter Catherine was married, see Philip's narrative for possible surnames of wife Margaret; also one Hiram Fox married Elizabeth Stebbins Oct. 1852 in the same church. Philip's dau. Catherine Fox had a son Hiram. These possible relatives might indicate that Hiram Gaylor followed relatives to Buffalo.

Nellie Louisa (Gaylor) (Collins) (Clark) (Caldwell's) obituary in The Brooklyn Daily Eagle Nov. 4 or 5, 1904, states that her grandfather was Gen. Henry Weaver who was killed in the Rev. War. This could not be accurate because her mother, Sarah Weaver, was born 1805 or 1807/8 (census), and was perhaps the grandaughter of a man who served in the Rev. It would seem that a man named Henry Weaver was father or grandfather of Sarah unless she had a maternal grandfather named Henry .... The obit. was probably prepared by daughter Edith or Nellie. Daughter Nellie Collins (Baker) (Fisher) would likely have been a great granddaughter of a man having Rev. service. The elusive Henry Weaver would likely have been born by 1760's or earlier The rank of the ancestor who served in the Rev. remains to be proved. Could Sarah Weaver have had a father Henry who was killed in the war 1812?

Descendant Mora Bow de Ybarrando indicated there was a Weaver ancestor that was a General in the War of 1812, no first name given. Weaver Gen'y by Clement Weaver mentions a Weaver known as General, but does not follow his line.

Nellie Gaylor Caldwell's obituary also stated that she resided in Buffalo for a short time. She was in Buffalo in 1855 census, 6 or 7 yrs of age. Confirming this, was the marriage of Nellie Gaylor's sister Catharine to Wm A. Bow in Buffalo in 1855 at St. Paul's Episc. Ch. and Helen Bow Segasti's statement that her ancestor Catharine Gaylor Bow was raised in Bflo. Nellie Gaylor was also in Bflo, abt 1890, chaperoning her two daughters who were performing in vaudeville, but not residing there to my knowledge.

Sarah Weaver was very likely to have been from one of the Palatine families of 1710, since three of those Weaver/Weber families settled in the Mohawk Valley area, Niclaus, Jacob Weber, and Widow Ottila Weberin. These three families were listed together in Holland on Capt. Jno. Untank's ship in the 5th party. In the Stone Arabia churchbook, Johann Geog Nicolaus Weber and and Johann Nicel. H. Weber were listed, (Ref: Jones). It would be necessary to search 3 or 4 intervening generations before the connection could be found. Jones mentions that it is difficult to separate the many Weaver/Weber Palatine families.

The Gaylor or Weaver family were probably related to Henry Pieler and Wd Weber who may have had husband John Weber since she was sponsor at the christening of John Weber Gaylor in 1831. (Ref: Stone Arabia Luth Ch.). (Be alert for Bieler and Kieler variant sp.).

A search of the name Henry Weaver in book on N.Y.S. Rev. War was not productive in finding a Henry Weaver of high rank.
A search of DAR lineage books found only a Henry Weaver of Pa. who might fit one killed in Rev.

One Hendrick Weaver was listed in the Muster Roll of the N.Y. Provincial Troops in 1758. He was of Capt. John Peter Smith's Co. under command of Col. DeLancey, Esq. He was 23 yrs old, for birth ca 1723, was a farmer, enlisted by Capt. Jno P. Smith, 29 March 1758. Need to track this man.

1860 Albany census, p. 804, Nicholas Weaver 53 yrs b. NY, salesman, wf Fanny 47 yrs, b. NY and ch. William H. 26, James E. 24, Jane F. 19, Juliete 16, Misina 14, Louisa L. 6, all b. N.Y. Adults can read and write. Ch 16 and under were attending school. They were listed 6 houses away from James Gayler, bro. of Hiram. This was perh. bro. of Sarah Weaver Gaylor.

Since Hiram moved frequently, one could assume that he rented his abode. No property was listed for him on the 1850 census. Arbor Hill in Albany is still scenic in 1989. Many cemeteries have been removed to make room for growth of city.

Note: Was Sarah A. Gaylor at 56 Union St. in 1852 our lady? In 1834, one Stephen Weaver had a father who resided at 51 Union St. His one yr old child buried from father's house.

Desc. Helen Bow Segasti stated that the Gaylor daughters were raised in Buffalo/Yonkers. Catherine Gaylor married William A. Bow, 2 July 1855 in Buffalo at St. Paul's Episc. Church, (Foley and IGI and Foley and another ref, prob. church rec.). I did not find any other Gaylor known to be from this family on 1992 IGI. It was surprising to find Kath. listed in Episc. ch. records.

1856, Hiram Gaylor died in Buffalo, N.Y.
1856/7, dau. Kate Gaylor Bow's first child Edward Herold Bow was born Bflo acc. to his marriage or death certif.

1860/61 ending May, Brooklyn City Directory Bk 7 map 5. This publ. by J. Lain and Co. FHC film 1000703, page 159; Sarah Gaylor widow. Home E. Warren near Nevins. I believe this to be Sarah Weaver Gaylor.
No Gaylord listed. This location is only about 3 blocks from __ St. Marks Ave. and 33 Prospect Place where her dau. Nellie Louisa Gaylor Collins Clark Caldwell resided many years later. Need to ck neighbors. All those addresses are west of Flatbush Ave.

In 1882 E. Warren near Nevins was in Ward 10, but may have been in another ward in 1860.

1861/2, ending May, Brooklyn City Dir. p. 156, Sarah Gaylor, widow, home 73 Fourth Place. Other Gaylors appeared: James, a carpenter, res. Union corner of Van Brunt, poss. a relative based on address; W.H. Gaylor, carpenter, 3rd nr S. Fourth; Wm Gayler, builder, third, home 85 S. Fourth, Edward Gaylord, bookbinder, home 220 S. Fourth; Wm Gaylord, bootmaker, home 230 S. Fourth.

1863/4 Bklyn City Dir. No Sarah Gaylor. One James Gayler, clerk, home 74 Clinton was listed.

1865, July, Sarah Weaver Gaylor died in Bklyn at 122 Union St. Were all her daughter married at this time?

Note that Oliver and Eliza Bow who were buried in the same cem. lot in Greenwood Cem. with the Gaylor and Bow families lived in Albany in 1850. This indicates that the Bow family knew the Gaylor family before daughter Kate married William Bow. Oliver was likely the father of William H. Bow who m. Eurilla Gaylor.

My father Homer Baker stated there was a family relationship to the Krauss family in Syracuse and were well known there. He did not state to which family the connection descends. Since the Baker, Hinsdale, Larkin, McCracken, Peck and Marsh families of Onondaga Co. have been well researched without finding a Krauss connection, I suspect that the connection comes through the Gaylor or Weaver families.

Hiram does NOT appear in these years, then reappears 1854, thus Sarah COULD have been his wife. If so, where was Hiram those 2 years? This Sarah could also have been an Aunt or cousin. Note that Hiram named a ch. Sarah A.

A Sarah Gaylor, nurse, appears in Brooklyn in 1860, but her age is not appropriate to be wf of Hiram.

1860 One Sarah A. Gaylor appears NY, NY Div. 49th Ward, p. 19, but ahe was 40 yrs for 1820 birth.

Since Nellie Louisa Gaylor and Wm Collins had a child Edith Willeta or Minnetta, I mention the following: Edward and Mgt. Willet had a child Sally in 1809 in Albany, Bp at 1st or 2nd Ref. Dutch Ch.

Gen. 3.

EURILLA A. GAYLOR AND WILLIAM H. BOW

9. Eurilla Gaylor was d/o Hiram (Philip1) and Sarah Weaver Gaylor. Hiram and Sally Gaylor had a child Jirolle/Jurille (as extracted in a typed church record) who was born 20 March 1828. See p. 28 May 1828, Stone Arabia, N.Y. Trinity Luth. Ch. #4404. I believe this name was extracted incorrectly and should be Eurilla. Eurilla Bow Bklyn death certif. # 19596 lists her as born Bflo N.Y., 32 yr resident of Bklyn, d. 172 S. Oxford St., one family house, both parents b. U.S. died 4 Nov. 1896 at 68 yrs, 6 mo. 15 days. Cause nephria morbus Brightii, coma and aesthania. Ill from April to Nov. Attending physician Dr. Wm Maddren of 1 Hanson Place. Undertaker Jones and Stanley, burial Greenwood Cem. (718/768-7300 Lot 15964, section 164. Age on the death certif., her birth calculates to 19 April 1828 which is a month off from the church record. This would probably be an error in calculation of the person writing the certif. who was probably orally told her birthdate. Since her parents did reside in Bflo, this would be a common error.

The 1865 obit. of her mother Sally Gaylor that stated that she had sons-in-law W.H. Bow and W.A. Bow. Wm A. Bow, probably a cousin of Wm H. Bow, married Eurilla's sister Catharine.

William H. and Eurilla A. Bow were buried in Greenwood Cemetery with her grandfather Phillip Gaylor, her parents Hiram and Sally (Weaver) Gaylor as well as sister Kate Gaylor Bow, wife of Wm A. Bow. Oliver and Eliza Bow buried with them is thought to be parents of Wm H. Bow. The gravestone of both Wm H. and Eurilla A. Bow is in excellent condition as of January 1998. WILLIAM H. BOW died Aug. 29 1881 in his 59th year, EURILLA A. BOW died Nov. 4 1896 in her 69th year. Gravestone says shall we know each other there.

Eurilla/Jurille was not with the family 1850 or 1855 census, but was prob. the female 10-14 years in 1840 Albany census with Hiram and Sally.

Wm H. Bow was b. ca 1823 Troy N.Y. and d. 29 Aug. 1881 Bottom Lake N.Y. acc. to Greenwood Cem. records. His death certif. has not been found and I do not know where Bottom Lake is located. Also in the Bow/Gaylor lot 15984, section 164, (718/768-7300) is Oliver Bow b. 1798 Hartford CT, d. 18 Dec 1868 Bklyn, N.Y. and wf Eliza b. 1805, died 10 June 1895, (cem. rec). Eliza died at Wash. D.C. acc. to Greenwood records, but David Stenn was not able to find her death certif. there. Oliver Bow death certif. 9094 lists him born Hartford CT occup. Hatter, res. in Bklyn 8 months, died 134 S. Oxford St. in Ward 20. Cause Cancer of stomach and Jaundice. Dr. treated him for one day. Both parents b. CT. Undertaker E. ?Davis of 895 Fulton St. These were prob. the parents of Wm H. Bow. (Elijah Bow, father of Wm A. Bow was likely a brother of Oliver).

In 1850, Oliver and Eliza Bow found Albany N. Y. Ward 4, p. 184. On same p. and in same Ward was Perry E.W. Bow, prob. related. This same name appeared also in Middlefield, Otsego Co. N.Y. p. 112 in 1850.
> In 1850, one Oliver Bowe appeared in Bklyn p 295, no ward listed, not done.
> In 1883, Eliza Bow was res. 172 Oxford St. with her dau.- in-law Eurilla Gaylor Bow, (Stenn).
> In 1892, Eliza at same res. with Eurilla Bow and Sarah A. Gaylor d/o Hiram Gaylor and Edward and wf Clara Hart Bow s/o Wm A. and Cath. Gaylor Bow. Edward was grson/o Hiram Gaylor. If it is true that Eliza moved to Wash. D.C. where she d. 3 yrs later, it might indicate that a child of hers was then residing there.

1850 census Albany N.Y., p. 199, Ward 4, 408-633 Wm H. Bow 19 yrs, (1831) merchant, Ursula Bow, 21 yrs, clerk, both resided in house with Daniel Tine/True and his large family. Could Ursula have been Eurilla? Her age fits Eurilla Gaylor, but the Wm H. Bow who lives nearby with Grosbeck fits her husband's age much better. These 2 Wm H. Bows must have been cousins.

Note that Oliver and wife Eliza Bow were buried in the same cem. lot with Kate Gaylor Bow and her parents. Oliver b. 1798 Hartford CT, d. 1868 Bklyn. Eliza b. 1805 Bklyn, d. 1895 Wash. D.C. Bow, husb. of Eurilla Gaylor, were prob. first cousins. It would appear that the Bow family knew the Gaylor family in Albany before Kate's marriage.

1850 one Mary Bowe listed Watertown, Jefferson Co. N.Y. p. 291. One Horace Bow listed Watertown, p. 328. Included here because William A. Bow was said to have resided Watertown.

NELLIE LOUISA GAYLOR AND WILLIAM T. COLLINS

Nellie Louisa Gaylor was d/o Hiram Gaylor (Philip1) and Sarah A. Weaver. She was born ca 1847/8 Albany Co. N.Y., acc. to 1850 and 1855 census when she appeared with her parents. These are the truest dates i have found for her birth. She was called Louisa and I will use that name to differentiate her from her dau. with the same name.

Brooklyn death certif. #21274 Nellie Louise Caldwell born in City of Albany, Albany Co. N.Y.; d/o Hiram Gaylor and wife Sarah Weaver, who were both born U.S. Age as 46 yr, 5 mo, 17 days (incorrect age). Married, housewife, residing in private house. She resided N.Y.C. for 35 yrs. Dr. Wm H. Bates, 137 Clinton St. Bklyn, attended her from June 29 to Nov 2. She died Bklyn, Kings Co. N.Y., Nov. 2, 1904 at 11:30 PM. from Uraemic Coma due to chronic nephritis. Undertaker was H. C. Pouch, 305 Adams St. She was buried Nov. 5, 1904 Evergreen Cemetery, Whispering Grove Section.
She purchased the cemetery plot when married to her 3rd husband Charles Caldwell 1898, reck. date (Ref: Death certif.;cem. rec.; family agreement at purch. of cem. plot).

Obituary of Nellie Louise Caldwell in Brooklyn Daily Eagle, Nov 4 1904, 3. After a long illness, Nellie L. the wife of Charles P. Caldwell and granddaughter of General Henry Weaver who was killed in the Revolutionary War, died Wed. eve at her late residence, 33 Prospect Place. She was born at Albany, N.Y. and resided for a short time in Bflo, but of late yrs had made B'klyn her residence. She had been for a number of years a member of the First Reformed Church on Seventh Ave. where she took an active interest in the Women's Missionary Soc'y, serving on the Committee for City Mission work. Her kindly face and her generous efforts in good works will be affectionately remembered by a host of friends outside of her own family, who will sincerely mourn her loss. Her two daughters, Mrs. John C. Davidson and Mrs. Nellie L. Baker, wd of the late Charles H. Baker, survive her and will ever remember her as a kind and loving mother.

(She must have been great grand dau. of man in Rev. War because her mother Sarah Weaver was born 1807. Otherwise, it would have to mean War 1812)?

> Nellie's father Hiram Gaylor, a grocer in 1850, was s/o Phillip and Margaret Gaylor who were in Stone Arabia, Montgomery Co. area in 1802. Acc. to rec. of Trinity Lutheran Church of Stone Arabia, Hiram was bpt. in 1805. Philip moved to Albany in 1830's, (City Directory). Expect this family were 1709 Palatines, not proven.
> The name was also spelled Gehler, Geler, Kehler, Keler in church records. (An Adam Kehler had a son Philip, Baptized in a N.Y.C. Lutheran Church about the right time for our Philip. It is not known if he was the same Philip).

MARRIAGE 1
Nellie Louisa Gaylor married first 28 Aug. 1865 Bklyn, by Rev. Adam Mc Cl --- Presb. to William T. Collins, (Wm's deposition 1890's for Civil war Pension Files). Her maiden name was listed as Nellie L. Gaylord in 1 April 1869 Bklyn Birth Ledger, p. 176, of their unnamed female child, res. 268 Bridge St. Bklyn was not part of N.Y.C. until 1898.

William T. Collins was b. ca 1844 N.Y.S. (1850, 1860 census); b. ca 1846 (1880 census); b. ca 1844/45, age in various Civil War Pension papers. William was born Brooklyn acc. to death certif. of dau. Nellie; lifelong resident of Bklyn in William's death certif. William was son of a watchmaker, clockmaker, William Collins Sr. (b. March 1798 MA; killed 7 March 1866 by unknown person in Bklyn N.Y. Died from fractured skull, Coroner's report) and Jeannette F.L. Von Valtee vultee. She had previous husband Oliver Mayo. (she b. ca 1809 PA, died Feb. 1879, listed as wd in 1868 and 1873 Bklyn City Dir). Jeannett was eldest d/o Captain Frederick Louis Von Vultee and Gertrude acc. to her obit. in Bklyn daily Eagle. Gertrude was d/o a Lutheran preacher in Germany Mr. Wertheim. His Von Vultee grparents were both immigrants from Germany abt 1800-1806. Wm and Jeannett Collins both buried Greenwood cem. Bklyn.

Brooklyn Death Certif. #1787, 23 January 1901 is a very poor copy and difficult to read for William T. Collins. Cause of death seems to be ____ation and apoplexy, Dr. ____ A. L. Ford M.D. of 192 Union Ave. His age was _4 yrs, (must be 54 yrs for birth ca 1847 in this record). Born N.Y. He was married, occup. was Canvasser, lived in Brooklyn lifelong, both parents b. U.S.; names unknown. Address or place died 78 Carroll St. Note that he was not married when he died per Civil War Pension File, so that was in error on death certif.
William was buried in Greenwood cem. Bklyn, Lot 1934, Section 67, with his parents. His grandmother Gertrude Wertheim Von Vultee owned the cemetery lot in 1847. Greenwood opened in 1838.

William died 23 January 1901 according to his Civil War Pension record SC 945-158. In these records he was 47 yrs old in 1892 and 51 yrs old in 1895 for birth ca 1844/45.

William T. Collins and Nellie Louisa Gaylor were divorced 1878 acc. to William's deposition for Civil War Papers, ca 1879 dau. Edith's deposition.
After William's divorce, ca 1882/3, he was invited by Mr. Spicer to live at his house. Mr. Spicer left his wife at some period of time and Wm Collins stayed on with Mrs. Cornelia Spicer who never divorced her husb. Mr. Spicer was reported to be alive. (Civil War Pension File, March 1901, depositions made by Cornelia Spicer and Edith W, (Collins) Davidson, dau. of Wm Collins.

In the 1890's William was reported as being 5'4 to 5'5 and weighed 130-140 pounds (Civil War Pension File). Guess that means that Nellie was probably also a short lady.

Lain's Bklyn City Dir. 1891/2 lists William T. Collins of 367 Van Brunt St. (his known address from his Pension papers) with occupation of Canvasser The same Dir. lists Edward A. Clark of 49 Cranberry St., which a known address of Nellie Louisa Gaylor. She was at the same address ~~as a wd~~ in 1892/3 Directory. Nellie Clark, wd of E.A. Clark 1860 census Ward 4, Bklyn, William T. Collins age 16 b. N.Y. in the household of W. Collins age 22, b. MA and Sarah 50 yrs b. N.Y. He is positively identified because his sisters Jannett and Lucinda appear with him. I am wondering if W. Collins was his father Wm with age listed incorrectly. I cannot identify Sarah who was the same age as Jannett.

In 1861/2, William may have been the Laborer who resided at 169 Water St. City Dir. This was close to his childhood home of 52 Water St.

William T. Collins enlisted in N.Y.C. on 12 July 1864 as a Private in the 84th Regt, Co. C, Infantry National Guard Militia in Oct. 1864 under the alias William Henry Mayo. He was mustered in 6 August 1864 at Fort Albany Virginia. He served 100 days in the Infantry in Md and Martinsburg W. VA. He was mustered out 31 Oct 1864 at Ft. Albany Virginia. He applied for a Pension about 1884 which was granted about 1895. In Dec. 1895 he received an increase of his Pension to $8 per month. Several of his fellow soldiers attested to his being the same person as the William H. Mayo who served with them.

William's ailments when applying for a Pension were: rupture left side (hernia), heart trouble, defective eyesight. He resided at 123 Coffee St. and later at 367 Van Brunt St. Brooklyn Kings Co. N.Y. in 1892/5 when making affidavits proving his identity.
Only the rupture was allowed for Pension purposes.

William Collins Sr. was born ca 1799 Mass. acc. to 1850 Bklyn census. He died 1866. Wife Jannett appeared in Bklyn City Dir. as a widow in 1868. He was a clockmaker living at 52 Water St. Bklyn, employed in Manhattan acc. to Bklyn City Dir. William married 1841 to Mrs. Jannett F.L. Mayo. Jannett had previously married Oliver Mayo in N.Y.C. in 1828 as Jane F.L. Von Vultee. Jannett F.L. Von Vultee was b. 1809 PA, (1850, 1870 census). She was p~~erhaps~~ born at ~~New Hanover, Montgomery Co.~~ PA ~~where her family resided in March 1807~~. Reading, Berks Co

Wm SR b. 1798 Springfield MA.

Mrs. Jannett Mayo married William Collins in 1841, (N.Y. Herald). William and Jannett Collins were listed in 1850 census in Bklyn with their Collins ch. and Jannett's minor Mayo ch. Jannett was alive, a widow, in Bklyn 1872/3 City Dir. She died 1879 and was buried in Greenwood Cem. 500 25th St. Bklyn, with her husband, Lot 1934, Section 67, which had been owned in 1848 by her mother Gertrude. Jannett's father Captain Frederick Louis Von Vultee (1773-1825) was from Hachborn Hessen Germany. He immigrated to the U.S. about 1800-1806. Jannett's mother was Gertrude Wertheim (1778-1858) of Hesse Cassel Germany. Both her parents died in N.Y. City. See my long Von Vultee mss. for her ancestry and her many siblings.

On 1850 census two of Jannett's Mayo sons were in household as well as her children Janette and William T. Collins, (b. ca 1844). It ~~is quite possible that William Collins Sr. had a previous wife and other grown children.~~

In 1870 census Ward 10, Bklyn, female J.F.L. Collins appeared in census with dau. Jennet 25 yrs and dau. Lucinda 19 yrs.

Nellie Gaylor's granddaughter Irene (Davidson) Howard, now deceased, wrote me in 1965 and 1975 that her great grandmother was a Von Valtee and that her Aunt Nellie Collins Baker was very pleased that it was a Von, not a Van prefix. There was a Baron Von Valtee in the line according to Irene. It is this clue which permitted me to tie Janette F.L. Von Vultee to the correct Collins family. Jannett's father Fred. Louis Von Vultee was listed as Baron in a PA publ. 20 p. narrative of the Kneass family by Anna Magee writtien 1919. Janeett's sister had married Napoleon b. Kneass of Phila.

William T. and Nellie L. (Gaylor) Collins' daughter Nellie L. Collins marriage certif. to Charles H. Baker does not list her father's middle initial. Dau. Edith's 1892 Marr. certif. lists father as Wm F. or T. Collins. I believe it says T but a dirty mark on the pg makes it look like an F. If it really was an F, 1t would have been more fancy.

Handwritten 1910 official marr. certif. of dau. Nellie L. Baker to John C. Fisher lists her father as Wm P. Collins and her mother as Nellie L. Gaylor.
The 1933 death certif. of dau. Nellie Collins Baker Fisher lists her father William's middle initial as C. (handwritten) and her mother's maiden name Louise Gaylor, both b. U.S., certif 16096, Reg. # 14722.

Wm T. is correct!

1880 census lists at 450 Fulton St. Bklyn, William T. Collins 34 yrs, (b. ca 1846) N.Y.S., father b. CT, mother b. N.Y.S., wf Nellie L. 27 yrs b. N.Y.S. and dau. Nellie L. 11 yrs and dau. Edith W. 9 yrs, both b. N.Y.S. and both par. b. N.Y.S.

Homer Baker Sr., grandson of Louisa Gaylor, stated that Nellie Louisa Gaylor's 1st husband was Collins, that she married 2nd Mr. Clark, had 3rd marriage to Charles P. Caldwell who had a previous marriage. Homer stated his grandfather Collins served in Civil War.

Nellie L Collins m.
MARRIAGE 2 Edward Augustus Clark m 14 Oct 1888 Bklyn, ny (marr certif), Louisa's name was indeed Clark when she married Chas. P. Caldwell, (proven by certificate).
Clark died 26 January 1892 Bklyn ny (death certif).

My father, Homer Baker stated that Louisa's 2nd husb. was Mr. Clark. Th~~is marriage prob. took place ca 1882-1891~~. One W. E. A. Clark and Charles P. Caldwell witnessed the marr. of Louisa's dau. Edith W. Collins in Nov. 1892. There is a squiggle next to the W in the name which may be the abbrev. for William or Walter. Louisa didn't marry Caldwell until 1895. Obviously, Louisa knew Caldwell quite well for at least 3 yrs before she married him. Edith's marr. certif. lists her address as 49 Cranberry St.

I find on Lain's Bklyn City Dir. for 1891/2 that Edward A. Clark, occup. Cutter, resided at 49 Cranberry St. In 1892, ending May 1 1893 Bklyn City Dir., Nellie Clark widow of Edward Clark resided 49 Cranberry St. This identifies Edward as the second husb. of Nellie Louisa Gaylor Collins. ~~Was he the same person as~~ W.E.A. Clark who witnessed Edith Collin's marriage certif. on 16 Nov 1892? Neither City Dir. lists W.E.A. Clark in any form. Perhaps s/o Edward A. by prev. wf.

Note: in 1861/2 Bklyn City Dir. William Hart, liquors, resided at 47 Cranberry St. Was he related to James Hervey Hart whose dau. Clara m. Nellie's nephew Edward Bow? Were 47 and 49 a two family house?

MARRIAGE 3.
1895, June 30, Nellie Louise Clark married Charles P. Caldwell. Brooklyn, both residing Bklyn, marr. certif. 3066. Second marriage for both parties, (actually it was 3rd for her). Her parents Hiram Gaylord and Sarah Weaver; his parents Henry A. Caldwell and Rosalina LaSalle. His age 34; her age 38 (incorrect). Charles, a salesman, born Phila. Pa,; Nellie born Albany, N.Y. R.B. Kelsay Clergyman of 93 Sixth Ave. J.C. Davidson and Mrs. J.C. Davidson were witnesses (dau. Edith and husb).
Need to find out which church this man served.

Charles. P. Caldwell was apparently b. ca 1861 and if correct, he was prob. some 12 or 13 yrs younger than Louisa. She obviously falsified her age since we know her true age from census records when she was a child. Louisa must have been 47 or 48 yrs old at this marr. Caldwell is not listed in Evergreen cemetery with her. Perhaps he was bur. with a different wife.

1869, Apr. 1, 268 Bridge St when dau. was b. 1 April. Bklyn Ledger of births p. 176. Physician F.Y. Colton. Husb. Wm T. Collins b. US, occup. Agent. Listed as Nellie L. Gaylord on this ledger b. US. Indexed as Nellie L. Collier, but actual ledger says Collins. We know the family was known as Gaylord in some Bklyn records and grch. Homer Baker and Irene Davidson called the family Gaylord also. (In 1860 Bridge St. appears to be in Ward 5 on border to Ward 4).

1870 may not be correct family but names are coincidental. This William was NOT Wm Henry, s/o Henryand Ethelinda Collins because that Wm had a wf Eliz. Moore in 1870.
1870, Bklyn, Series M593, Roll 947, Ward 4, p. 370, house visitation 619. William Collins, b. NY, 28 yrs (for birth ca 1842), MACHINIST, wf Nelly, 31 yrs (for birth 1839 wrong date), b. NY, dau. Nellie, age 3, b. NY, dau. Winnetta or Ninnetta, age 1, b. NY. They resided in a boarding house with head of family Louis Van Pell or Pelt. Ck out Van Pelt wf. No markings in columns on the right.

In 1870, Ward 4 was bounded by Sand St, Bridge St, Myrtle Ave and Fulton. This was directly inland going East from Ward 1 that was by the River. S. Parkes Cadman Plaza later stood in this area.

This indicates that ch. Nellie was b. ca 1867 and (Edith Willetta) Winnetta abt 1869. Also that mother Nelly age 31 was b. 1839 which does not fit, making her 10 yrs older than we know her to be. Our Nellie Louisa was more likely closer to 22/23 yrs in 1870.
We know our Wm T. Collins and Nellie L. Gaylor had a female ch. 1 Apr 1869, so were marr. before 1870 census.

(Our Edith Willetta Collins was b. 31 March 1872 acc. to her grson John Howard. Her age of 20 in 1892 marr. supports this birthyear. This seems to refute the above 1870 family belonging here, but I have found only the female child born 1 April 1869 which was either Nellie or her sister Edith Collins in Bklyn records. No births for this couple found 1872 or 1874). Cannot find marr. of our Wm Collins and Nellie Gaylor in Bklyn records 1866-1870, because they were marr. 1865 + there are no recs for 1865.

1873, Brooklyn City Dir.
Several William Collins appear; one sewing machines, home 46 Smith St. This was probably our William. Smith St. is close to the Old First Reformed Church at 7th and Carroll where Nellie Louisa and her dau,. Nellie L. were members. It is also one block from 5 and 13 Hoyt St. where William's mother Jannet Collins lived in 1868/72.

1876/7 Wm T. Collins, agent, appeared in City Dir. at 690 Pacific St. (In 1860 Pacific St was in Wards 6 and 10).
Another Wm T. was a moulder in the Dir. living at rear 10 Clermont Ave. This is nr Flushing Ave. betw. Vanderbilt and Adelphi St. and right on top of the Bklyn Navy Yd. This was maybe Ward 5 or 11 in 1860.

1880 census soundex and actual census, 450 Fulton St. in Bklyn, Vol. 29, Enum. Dist. 15, sheet 35, line 7, William T. Collins 34 yrs, agent sewing machines, b. NY, father b. CT, mother b. N.Y., wf Nellie L. 27 yrs b. NY and both par. b. NY, dau. Nellie L. 11 yrs, b. N.Y. and both par. b. N.Y., dau. Edith W. 9 yrs, b. N.Y. and both par. b. N.Y.
This would indicate that father was b. 1846, mother was b. 1853 and dau. Nellie was b. 1869 when mother was 16 yrs old and dau. Edith b. ca 1871. Mother may have fudged her age here since we know that she was 7 yrs old on 1855 Bflo census for birth ca 1848 which I consider to be the most accurate date. Mother also appeared as 3 yrs in 1850 census with parents in Albany. I did not copy ward #, expect it was ward 3 or 4 at that time. Edith was known to have had middle name Willetta acc. to her grandson John Howard Jr.

Fulton St. was a boundary line in 1860 and ran along Wards 1,2,3,4 and 10.

1883 Bklyn City Dir. Nellie Collins, varieties, home 04 1/2 Franklin Ave. This was ~~prob.~~ perhaps our divorced Nellie Gaylor Collins.
Two Wm T. Collins' appear here also, one a locksmith, another a shoe pak. Poor copy, cannot read addresses.

1884/5, no Nellie Collins. Same dir. Wm T. Collins, matmaker Woodbine St.
1885/6, no Nellie Collins appears, ~~perhaps married to Clark by this time~~.
Same dir. Wm T. Collins Photographer, home Clinton St.

pg out of order

Nellie Louisa (Gaylor) Caldwell was ill for a time and her dau. Edith (Collins) Davidson resided with her. Grdau. Irene (Davidson) Howard described her as wearing frilly clothing, and was a martinet, quite demanding.

1892, Sept. daughter Nellie L. Collins was married at 49 Cranberry St. (bible); in Nov. 1892 dau. Edith and her husb. Jack Davidson both resided at 49 Cranberry St. acc. to their marr. certif. ~~I suspect that~~ Nellie Louisa was then ~~married to Mr.~~ E. A. Clark.
(In 1860 Cranberry St. was in Wards 1 and 3. The numbers prob. started nr the river in Ward 1. ~~I am still not certain whether~~ Cranberry St. was their residence ~~or the church or parish building~~, ~~even though~~ Edith's certif. said it was their residence).

many inaccuracies in 1900 census taker's report. Note that Irene, d/o Edith and John Davidson said her f. fam. lived in Canada.
1900 June 11 census, Bklyn Supr Dist 2, E.D. 113, sheet 14, Ward 9, p. 40, Jos. Flynn enum. 6399 written on rt top corner. RG 312, T623, Roll 1048. Address 26 Berkeley Place. dwelling visit 69. family visit 307.

Her ch. and families were living with them as follows:

All places of birth on Edith's line are incorrect because her mother's proven place of birth was Albany. John Davidson was b. Canada and also his parents acc. to his daughter Irene's records.
Chas. Baker's proven d.o.b. was 18 March 1863 Camillus Onon. Co. NY and his par. were both b. there also).

Berkeley Place runs between Union and Lincoln west of Prospect Park. Near grand Army Plaza and Flatbush Ave. Also near carroll and 7th Ave. where the First Reformed Church is located, where the family were members.

1901 Bklyn City Directory, Charles Caldwell resided 26 Berkeley Place. Occupation was listed as Leather at 34 Spruce St.

1902 and 1903 City Dir. Charles Caldwell resided 471 First St. Bklyn, Leather, work, 37 Spruce, Manhattan. Same address and workplace as stepson-in-law John C. Davidson in 1903 directory.
(First St. was next to Carroll St. and was in Ward 10 in 1860).

1904 City Dir. Charles Caldwell resided 33 Prospect Place Bklyn, was employed Leather, 71 Gold St, Manhattan.
This was the year that his wf Nellie Gaylor died.

1910, dau. Nellie Collins Baker rented the brownstone house at 33 Prospect Place and operated it as a boarding house. Chas. Caldwell was not with her 1910.

Do more directories for Caldwell later.

Apparently Nellie was instrumental in the vocation of her two young daus. Nellie and Edith in Variety/Vaudeville Theatre, since they performed at a young age. They were billed as the Collins sisters. Nellie Sr. chaperoned her daughters as they travelled on the Erie Canal Theatre circuit.

Matthew was in Camillus, N.Y. by 1822, when he joined the Elbridge Baptist Church by letter from Stamford, Vermont. The Baptist Society was organized in 1816. Lemuel Crossman was Trustee. Was he related to Asa? A loose handwritten sheet of paper found in the vertical file at the Syracuse Library stated that Matthew Baker was in Camillus in 1816. If so, the Grand List at Stamford during the years 1816-1822 would have to mean Matthew Jr. I question the 1816 date. In 1822 Elbridge was part of Camillus. Matthew was dismissed by letter from this church on October 18, 1840, four years prior to his death. Perhaps, he was ill at this time. In the 1840 census, Matthew and Lydia were residing with James ^{2}. Curiously, I found no land transactions listed in Onondaga county for Matthew Baker, during his residence there. One reference stated that Lydia Baker resided Hannibal Center for a time. This would be near other Millard relatives.

Matthew's will was not found at Camillus. Lydia was 95 years old at her death. She outlived her son James M. by three months, and her daughter - in - law by eight years. Lydia resided the last years of her life with her son James Millard Baker, at Camillus. (Census).

They were both buried on a hill in the northeast part of the Oswego Bitter Cemetery in Camillus. Matthew's gravestone is upright, and calls him Captain, and age 76, but Lydia's stone is lying flat, having fallen at some time in the past. This is an inactive cemetery at the present time. It is mowed twice yearly. There is a bed of myrtle and berry bushes growing around the graves. There is a large tree nearby. The road has been changed and the grade of the road from it's original way. Facing the cemetery, the Baker plot is on the left quite far to the back of the cemetery, on a hill. Both gravestones have epitaphs:

Matthew
My Lord hath called and I obeyed
To meet and with him dwell
The last great debt I now have paid
And bid the world farewell

Lydia
Mourn not for me my dearest friend
Since life with one did? ever? end
In Jesus arms? .... rest?
with his dear Sa..... forever? blest

I visited this graveyard in August of 1989. Buried on Matthew's left was Loring Richmond July 25, 1859, 77 yrs, 6 mo, 6 days; his wife Lydia died April 8, 1829 in the 47th yr of her life; Sally, second wife of Loring Richmond, died

UPDATE FOR 2007 REUNION IN WILLIAMSBURG, VA

As of today, 77 rooms at the Patrick Henry Inn in Williamsburg, VA, have been reserved for the reunion. A month ago the total was 61. We have now exceeded our original block of 75 rooms, but they will continue to take reservations as long as space is available. However, I suggest that if you want to attend, you should make your reservation soon by contacting the Inn at (757)229-9540 or toll free (800)446-9228. Tell them you are part of the Graves Family Association group.

Some people will be staying in other accommodations, such as their own nearby homes, in RV parks, or elsewhere.

On this subject, I received a helpful suggestion from Frances Stachour (descended from Francis Graves of VA, gen. 220), who will be attending. She wrote: "Any military or military retirees are eligible to stay at military guest houses, Navy Lodges, Air Force Inns, etc. Active military can book 60 days ahead, and retirees can book 30 days ahead. Since there are several bases in the area, this could be a viable, and cheaper, alternative for some who are coming. I, myself, am planning to attend the reunion and stay either at Langley AFB or at Ft. Eustis, or if those are full at the Navy Lodge at Norfolk Naval Station and commute." X

HUSBAND - Hiram GAYLOR-56

Albany City Directory, Hiram Gaylor. A Grocer.
1832 55 N. Lansing St.
1848 103 Green St.
1850 73 Green St.
1851/2 44 Hudson St.
William H. Gaylor in Albany also, rel'ship unknown.
Hiram Gaylor death listed in Early Settlers of NYS by Foley, p 514, taken from Bflo Newp. obit. Bflo Morning Express, 10/10/1856, copy at Bflo Hist. Socy. res. 98 E. Seneca St. Bflo. Fun. Wed. from his res., 51 yrs old at death.
Have copy of death certif.

David Stenn research found that Hiram and his father Philip was bur. Albany and exhumed and reinterred in Greenwood Cem. July 1865 at Bklyn NY, abt the time that his wf Sarah/Sally Weaver Gaylor d., and Hiram was buried with her.
Some of the names in the cem. say Gaylord. Desc. Homer Baker and Irene Davidson Howard all said the name was Gaylord.
Hiram's wf Sally was bur. as Gaylor and one of her daus. was bur. as Gaylord. Wm T. Collins deposed that he marr. Nellie Louise Gaylord.
Greenwood Cem. Lot belonged to Eliza Bow. When she died the lot was given to Greenwood Cem. This is where Philip and Hiram and Sally Gaylor were buried, as well as Hiram's 2 Bow ch. Two of them married Bows.

1850, 2 Sept. census Albany City, Ward 3, p. 114. John Gray, Ass't Marshall. House visit 79 family 116. 73 Green St. Hiram Gaylor 46, Grocer,property column blank; Sarah 43, Sarah 17, Catharine 15 yrs, Martha 10 yrs, Ellen 6 yrs, Louisa 3 yrs. All in fam b. NY.

1855, 15 June, State census, Bflo, Erie, NY, Ward 2, House #221 family #227. Hiram 48 yrs b. Montgomery Co. N.Y., wf Sarah 47 yrs b. Montg. Co. NY; ch. Sarah A. 20 yrs b. Montg. Co. N.Y., Katherine 19 yrs b. Albany Co. NY, Martha 13 yrs b. Albany Co. NY, Anna 10 yrs b. Albany Co. NY, Louisa 7 yrs b. Albany Co. NY, they had all res. Erie Co. NY for one yr.

Either Gaylor or Weaver is prob. related to Weber fam. (maybe John) and Henry Pieler, both surnames sponsors at bp. of Hiram's son John Weber Gaylor in Montgomery Co. Weber and Weaver names sometimes interchanged acc. to Henry Z. Jones, Palatine expert.
Hiram Bp. his first 2 ch. in Trinity Lutheran Ch. in Stone Arabia, NY
Proof of his parents given at Trinity Luth. Ch. rec. o f birth under surname Geler.
Variant spelling Kehler, Gehler, Keler, Geler, Galard, Gaylord etc.

Wd Sally Gaylor may poss. have gone to Yonkers later, since Helen Bow Segasti said Gaylor girls grew up there. I found no proof of that to date. By 1865, Sally Gaylor res. in Bklyn Ward 6, where she died that yr, and indeed dau. Nellie m. 1865 in

Husband Hiram GAYLOR-56

Wife Sarah aka Sally WEAVER-57

Notes

HUSBAND - Hiram GAYLOR-56 (Continued)

Bklyn.. If they ever lived in Yonkers, it would have to have been ca 1857-1864 and the ch. were all grown by that time.
Dau. Cath. Gaylor m. Wm A. Bow in Bflo 1855 at N.Y. Episc. Ch. where they had res. for abt a yr.
Perhaps it was one of the Bows who lived in Yonkers for a time???

NOTE that the dau. Ellen may have been Isabella and called Ella.

WIFE - Sarah aka Sally WEAVER-57

1850 Albany, 1855 Bflo census with husb. indicates her b. 1807/8 Montg. Co. N.Y.
See Church Rec. Trinity Luth. Ch. Stone Arabia, Montg. Co. NY. where ch. were bpt. death certif. Bklyn #4188, d. 18 July 1865 age 57 yrs 7 mo 8 days. Calc. to Jany 10 1808 birth, give or take a day or 2 for Leap yrs. Did not use a birth calc. Last address 122 Union St. 6th Ward. Died from Ovarian dropsy. Dr. D.A. Dodge.

Bur. Greenwood cem. in Eliza Bow Lot. Eliza was wf of Oliver Bow. This lot given to Greenwood at death of Eliza.

Try to get 1865 State census for Bklyn.

CHILD 1 - Eurilla GAYLOR-1310 not with parents 1850 or 1855 census. Her birth church rec. Trinity Luth. Stone Arabia, Montg. Co. NY.

One Ursula Bow 1850 Albany census, 21 yrs, clerk, b. NY may have been Eurilla.
408-633 p. 199.
She res. with Daniel Tine family. Others in hh Mary Dougan 19 yrs no occup, Wm H. Bow 19 yrs b. NY no occup., Wm Tine 4 yrs b. NY, and sev. other people.
This Wm H. Bow could have been the man she later married, but age is wrong.

CHILD 2 - John Weber GAYLOR-1311

sponsors at Bp Henrich Pieler and Widow Weber.
Not with par. 1850, 1855 census.

CHILD 3 - Sarah Ann GAYLOR AKA GAYLORD-1312

1850, 1855 census indicates b. 1833/1835 Albany. Spinster.

1892 living 172 S. Oxford St. with Ed H. Bow and Eliza wd of Oliver Bow and Eurilla Bow wd of Wm. H. Bow.
Sarah Ann Gaylord b. US, d. 29 May 1896 age 60 and bur. in Greenwood cem. as Gaylord, thus she must not have married.
addr. 172 S. Oxford St. Bklyn. f. b. US, cant read all of d. certif.
She must be d/o Hiram and Sarah Weaver Gaylor.

One Sarah Ann Gaylor was a nurse in Bklyn in 1860, age 40, but age doesnt fit.

CHILD 4 - Catharine M. GAYLOR-1314

13 ch. Grmother of Clara Bow, silent Screen Star.
Ref. 1850, 1855 census, family info., called Kate.
d. certif Bklyn #1107 says b. Albany N.Y. d. Pleuro Pneumonia and premature confinement Feb. 9 1877 age 38 which fig. as 1839, but she may not have had her birthday as yet so it could have been 1838. Res. Bklyn 18 yrs figures to 1859. Last address 89 Hanson Pl. Ward 20. Dr. H.A. Archer. 111 Sandford St. Bur. Feb. 11.

Poss. that the ch. listed as d. bef 1870 census could have been farmed out to other relatives??
There may have been a child Dean Bow acc. to Helen Segasti.

Her marriage FHC reel 0928705 p. 54. Index to Parish Register St. Paul's Episc. Ch. Bflo NY. Definitely lists him as Wm A. Bow and she as Miss Catharine M. Gaylor. m. 2 July 1855.

CHILD 6 - Martha GAYLOR-12245

Martha appeared on 1850 and 1855 census with parents Hiram and Sarah. 13 yrs in 1855 for birth ca 1842.

Family lore says Martha m. Mr. Shields and had ch. Harry and Florence who never married is obvioulsly incorrect for husband,

Husband Hiram GAYLOR-56

Wife Sarah aka Sally WEAVER-57

Notes

mixing the mother, (known daughters of Hiram Gaylor) in the Shields and Hubbard family..

1880 census shows Isabella, wf of John Shields in Bklyn with the known Harry and Florence children. Seems as tho family lore had the dau. who m. Shields incorrect and should be that Martha m. Hubbard. However, no Isabella appeared in 1850 and 1855 census with Hiram Gaylor, unless she was the Ellen who appeared in 1850 in Hiram's hh and does not appear in 1855.

1880 census Albany NY, Ward 4, p 177B. Frederick Hubbard, 34 yrs, b. Eng, both par. b. Eng, Carpenter. wf Martha, 31 yrs, b. NY, both par. b. Eng (an error). ch. Eurella 14 b. NY, f. b. Eng, m. b. NY and Laura 12 yrs b. NY, f. b. Eng, m.. b. NY. Both ch. at school.

CHILD 7 - Isabella or Ellen or Ella GAYLOR-1315

MarthaGaylor appeared on 1850, 1855 census with parents(Hiram and Sarah) as b. ca 1840/42.

My father Homer Bakler said that Martha Gaylor m. Shields and had 2 ch. Harry and Florence who never married and lived together at 111 Cambridge St. as adults. I remember Florence Shields at my grmother's wake in 1933.

Bklyn children Harry b. ca 1868 and Florence b. ca 1871 appear on census as ch. of John Shields and wf Isabella.
The name Isabella does not appear on 1850 or 1855 census in family of Hiram and Sarah Gaylor, unless she was the one listed as dau. Ellen in 1850, who does not appear on 1855 census. The name Ellen is close to the name Ella which could be a nickname for Isabella.

I am unsure if John Shields remarried.

I find a Frederick Hubbard on 1880 census with wf Martha who had the known ch., Irving and Edith Stockwell, of this family. I remember Irving at my grmother Nellie Fisher's house in Bklyn, and my parents were friendly with my father Homer's cousin Edith (Stockwell) Sainsbury.

CHILD 8 - Anna C. GAYLOR AKA GAYLORD-1317

she listed 1850, 1855 census with par. Hiram and Sarah Gaylor. Ffamily info. says ch. Edith and Irving Stockwell , both known in the family. Edith m. Sainsbury and was friend of my mother. I remember the obese Irving Stockwell when he lived with my grmother Nellie Collins Baker Fisher abt 1932.

1860 census Anna 16 yrs, liv Bklyn Ward 3, p 605/6 (in boarding house of Sarah Mills age 45 with a Mills son incl. a Sarah), also living in this house was Anna's sister Eurilla Bow 30 yrs and bro in law Wm Bow, 36 yrs, merchant.

1863, Annie C. Gaylord's marr. to Henry B. Stockwell publ. in NY Herald 8 June 1863.

1880 census Bklyn. p. 68C. T9-0855. Henry B. Stockwell, Gas Furnace Dealer, 38 yrs b. CT, both par. b. CT. Wife Anne C. 37 yrs b. NY, both par. b. NY. Ch. Irving 15 yrs, Edith 11 yrs, Grace 7 yrs all. b. NY, f. b. Eng m. b. NY.

CHILD 9 - Nellie Louisa GAYLOR/ GAYLORD-30

Last name of Louisa and her siblings sometimes listed as Gaylord in Bklyn records. Husb. Wm T. Collins deposed that he m. Nellie Louise Gaylord Aug. 28 1865 Bklyn in his Civil War Pension file on 4 May 1898.
Wm T. Collins was first husb. of Gaylor. A female child, no name, b. to him and Nellie Louise Gaylord Collins (was prob. Edith W. Collins) b. 1 April 1869 in Bklyn when they lived on Bridge St. very close to where Wm's mother resided on Hoyt St. (Bklyn birth record).

Wm T. Collins gave deposition in 1898 that his dau. Edith W. was b. 1 April 1868, (which was one year off from above record). Wm T. stated his dau. Nellie L. Collins was b. 16 Dec 1866. Haven't found her birth record. Was he a yr off for her, also? Look for divorce rec. in Bklyn 31 May 1878 as per Wm's depostion for Civil War Pension files. However, Wm and Nellie appeared together 1880 census with known daus. Nellie L. and Edith W. Collins.

Edward Augustus Clark was 2nd husb. Marr. certif 3861, 14 Oct. 1888. He had a prev. marr. He was 40 yrs old. Both res. 49 Cranberry St. She was listed as 33 yrs old (wrong). She was older.
W.E.A. Clark poss. son or brother of Ed. was witn. in Nov. 1892 marr. of Nellie's dau. Edith and Edith's address was given as 49 Cranberry St.

Husband Hiram GAYLOR-56

Wife Sarah aka Sally WEAVER-57

Notes

In City Dir. of 1892 Edward A. Clark at this address and in 1893 I find Nellie Clark wd of Edward A. at this address. Nellie Collins Jr. was m. to Chas. Baker at the same 49 Cranberry St. address in summer 1892 (Baker bible rec).

Gaylor m. third as Nellie Louisa Clark to Charles P. Caldwell; m. June 30, 1895 2nd m for him. License says it was her 2nd m. (3rd m. acc. to grson Homer Baker Sr. who was correct), Chas. 34 yrs, Nellie 38 yrs. Believe she fudged her age by 10 yrs. Note that Chas. P. Caldwell was witn. to 1892 marr. of her dau. Edith, 3 yrs before Gaylor m. Caldwell. No issue by 2nd and 3rd husb.

In 1901, shortly after death of Wm T. Collins, dau. Edith W., wf of John C. Davidson, made deposition for her father's Civil War Pension file listing herself as his dau. She stated that her f. had 2 daus., that her bro-in-law was Chas. Baker, that her parents divorced 22 yrs ago this coming summer of 1901, (for div. abt 1879); that her mother was now wf of Chas. P. Caldwell and that she, her mother and bro-in-law Chas. Baker, all resided at 26 Berkeley Place (an address that my f. Homer Baker Sr. had given me many yrs ago).

Nellie Louisa Gaylor (Collins) (Clark) Caldwell bought lot 137 Whispering Grove Evergreen Cem. Bushwick and Conway St. Bklyn abt 1898 and made a legal type agreement with her ch. and their husbands as to who would be permitted burial there. She died age 46 acc. to record, (age still 10 yrs off).

Louisa lived at 33 Prospect Place, Bklyn when she d. from Nephritis. My grandmother, (her dau. Nellie Louisa Collins Baker, lived same address 1910 and 1920 and her 2nd marr. was to John Fisher in 1910).
Louisa's gr dau. Irene Davidson Howard stated that Louisa lived with her par. Edith Collins Davidson when ill and was a martinet and unpleasant. She wore frilly clothing.

Daus. Nellie Collins and sister Edith Collins said they were desc. from Baron Von Vultee. I find this connection with the m. of Jannette F.L. Von Vultee to Oliver Mayo in N.Y.C. in 1828 and her 2nd marr. to William Collins Sr. in 1841. N.Y. City Dir. and St. Matthews Ch. Manhattan informs re: the Von Vultee family . The surname is a very unusual one and all in N.Y.C. 1820 to 1860's were related. Jannett's father was Capt. Frederick Louis Von Vultee who was also listed as Baron in a Kneass family history written in 1919 by Anna Magee.

Louisa's parents and place of birth in Albany was given on her death certif. 2 Nov. 1904, age 46 yrs, 5 mo, 17 d. for May d.o.b. (May d.o.b. agrees with 1900 census, but age wrong).
Also, my father Homer Baker, her grson, gaveGaylor's place of birth as Albany.
1850 Louisa appeared in Albany with f. Hiram as 3 yrs old. In 1855 census, she appeared in Bflo with parents as Louisa, age 7, b. Albany, (dob ca 1848).
Father d. 1856 and mother Sarah Weaver Gaylor d. 1865 Bklyn. She was not found 1860, in Bflo or Bklyn. Sarah/Sallie Weaver Gaylor d. July 1865 Bklyn res. Union St. Bur. Greenwood Cem. in Bow Lot.

1900 census Louisa's birth listed May 1872? (wrong), hard to read, age 42?, hard to read, (wrong). Believe census taker had difficulty sorting out the 2 Nellie L's, mother and dau. in same household.

1870 census, Ward 4 p 370 B, July 6, Bklyn Nellie L. Collins, 31 yrs (ca 1839) had daus. Nellie 3 yrs and Winnetta 1 yr. husb. William Collins 28 yrs, (ca 1842) all b. NY. Ages of h. and wf incorrect. Ages of ch. prob. correct.

1880 soundex and census Bklyn Vol. 29, Enum. Dist. 15, sheet 35, line 7, 450 Fulton St. Is E.D. 15 same as Ward 15? William T. Collins 34 yr, (ca 1846) b. NY, f. b. CT, m. b. N.Y., sewing machine agent; Nellie L. 27 yr, (ca 1853) b. N.Y., Nellie L. 11 yrs, (1869) Edith W. 9 yrs, (1871) both b. NY. (ages o f h and wf incorrect).

Confusing the search Wm's middle initial was different on records - it was Wm C. and Wm P. on some records, Wm T. on others. The correct initial is T. See his Civil War Pension File and 1869 birth of dau. and his burial.

Lucinda was only abt 15 at the time and mot mentioned in newspaper report of the murder. Wf's name was not mentioned in news reports.

LDS date calculator from death age says b. 10 March 1798, but I think it should be abt March 12 or 13.
In 1868, his wd Jeannette Collins appeared in Bklyn City Dir.
He buried with son Wm and wf Jeannette in Greenwood Cem. Lot 1934 Section 67, which was purch. 19 Aug 1847 by Wm Menck and half of the lot was conveyed to Gertrude Vultee, mother of Jeannette. So, was Menck rel. to Collins or to Vultee??
In estate of Wm Menck, his share went to Robt Miller.
Wm prob. too old for Mexican War and too young for War 1812 (14-16 yrs).

Wm Collins may have been of Springfield MA

Richmond Berkshire Co MA 1768 + was a Tyrannus Collins, Daniel, Ralph all having ch. there.Tyringham Berk. MA was an Abr. having ch there 1772 and more.

Nathan Collins b. 1683 m2 on 1 Nov 1732 to Lydia Bliss of Spr. MA. She d/o Sam and Hannah Bliss and wd of Danl Ingersoll.. Nathan Collins m1 Anna Cooley 6 Feb. 1710 Springfield MA and had 3 ch., one of which was Nath'l b. Spr. 1711. Nathl Sr moved to Brimfield where he m2. Lydia Bliss, d/o Sam and Hannah Bliss. Son Nathl was deeded by his f. land in Brimfield Hampshire Co. MA.

Must trace this Nathan Collins family.

There was A Hezekiah Collins fam of Westerly RI and Charlestown RI in 1700's.
There was a Benjamin Collins of Lebanon CT who m Hannah Swift 1720/21. Hannah was d/o Josiah Swift3.

WIFE - Jeannette Fredericka Louisa VON VULTEE-7944

B'klyn Daily Eagle obit. Feb. 24 and 25 gives her dod suddenly from Pneumonia. It states she was relict of the late Wm Collins and d/o the late Frederick L. and Gertrude Von Vultee.
Death Certif. Bklyn certif. # 1705 says she was Jeannette Fredericka Louisa Collins d. 23 Feb. 1879, 6 P.M. Pneumonia, 70 yrs, 5 mo, 21 days; b. Reading Penn. lived in US lifelong, in Bklyn 31 yrs, (since 1848) both parents b. Germany, d. at 44 Park Place, one family house, top floor. Dr. G. H. or G. N. Atkinson (of 98 Pienapple St. tr. her from Feb. 20, ill 4 days. Bur. Greenwood Cem. 26 Feb. 1879, H.B. Burrell Undertaker of 107 Flatbush Ave.
Letter from Greenwood Cem. gives her date of interrment at Greenwood and she is listed as Jeannette F.L. Collins both in obit and in cem. rec. Her dau. Jeannette was named Blakely in March 1866 when she made deposition at Inquest of her father's murder.
At that time DA Jeannette ~~one of her daus.~~ was a widow whose husb. d. 15 months earlier in the Army during Civil War, ~~no name given. Since dau. Lucinda was only 13 yrs old in 1864 when the husb. died, it would appear that dau. Jeannette was the one who had m. the Army man. The only other poss. would be if Jeannette had a dau. by Oliver Mayo.~~
Jeannette's funeral was at the home of her son-in-law Chas. P. Kretschmar at 44 Park Place Bklyn, and Dau Jeannette ~~so one of her daus. married this man.~~ Note that one Mr. Crechman lived in her boarding house in 1870 census.

Her name at marr. to Mayo was Von Vultee as seen in FHC filming of orig. rec. of Vandewater St. Church in Manhattan. (I didnt see any other rec. that the Von Vultee family were members there).
Jeannett was b. in PA as was her proven bro. Henry, whose par. were listed at his Bpt. in 1807 in New Hanover Luth. Ch. Montg. Co. PA. Par. Fred. and Gertrude Von Vultee moved to Manhattan by 1817 ch. rec. and 1820 census. Henry was living with his mother Gertrude in 1850 in Manhattan. Henry was then a widower.
Jeannett's proven sister Mary Ann (Bpt. as Marianne at St. Matthew's Ch. in N.Y.C.) m1. Leonard Snethen and m2 Donald Campbell who died bef. 1855. In 1850 Mary Ann and Donald Campbell were living with Jeannett and her 2nd husb. Wm Collins in Bklyn. In 1855 Mary Ann was a wd. living with her bro. George W. Vultee and her mother Gertrude Vultee in Manhattan.
Jannett's bro. Wm Augustus Von Vultee named ch. Jannett and Gertrude.
Caroline Amelia = Jannett's sister m. Napolean Bonaparte Kneass. Napolean's baby sister m. corr Jannett's son John Mayo.
Father Fred. L. Von Vultee was 47 yrs when he d. in 1825 ch. rec. for birth 1773.
Jannett's birth falls between brothers Henry b. feb. 1807 and Chas. was b. __ 1810.

Jeannette was a wd on 1870 census in Bklyn with her 2 daus. Jeannette and Lucinda. (Note that the daughters were called Collins in this census and no husbands in residence. Jeannette was alive as a wd in 1868 and 1873 Bklyn City Dir.

Dau Jeannette was actually Blakely at this time

Notes

CHILD 1 - Jeanetta A. COLLINS-7950

Jeanetta A. Blakely deposed at the Inquest of her father's murder that she was dau. of Wm Collins; also that she ran a boarding house. She lived near enough to get to her father's store in time to take him home from his Bklyn Jewelry store after the attack and robbery on March 3 1866.

The Bklyn Daily Eagle stated that Wm Collins left 3 ch. (Wm T. Collins, Jeannetta Blakely and an unnamed dau.) ~~One of his.~~ Dau Jeannette d~~aughters~~ had lost her husband Blakely in the Army abt 15 months before March 3 1866 acc. to Bklyn Daily Eagle. This was Civil War time.
Collins only had 2 daughters. ~~This unmamed Army casualty had to be husb. of Jeannette Jr. (Her sister Lucinda was only 13 yrs old in 1864 when the Army son in law died).~~

In 1879, Jeanetta's mother Jeannette Collins' funeral was held at her son in law's home 44 Park Place in Bklyn, ~~so either dau.~~ Jeannette Jeannetta ~~or dau. Lucinda~~ married Chas. P. Kretschmar. Note a Mr. Crechman lived with Jannett Collins and her 2 daus. in their boarding house in 1870 census in Bklyn. ~~The only other possibility would be if Jeannette had a dau. by Oliver Mayo, her first husb.~~

CHILD 2 - William T. COLLINS-7942

Bur. Lot 1934 Greenwood cem. 500 25th St. Bkln NY 11232-1690. Enlisted in Civil War in NYC 12 July 1864 for 100 days 84th Regt. Co. C, Infantry, Natl Guard, Militia. Mustered in July 13 at Ft. Albany VA. Mustered out same place in 31 Oct. 1864. Enlisted under alias of William Henry Mayo. Pension papers list fellow soldiers who attested that Collins served and was the same person as Mayo in their unit. Attesting was done in 1892/5. Pension Claim # 1103936. On 31 March 1892 and 11 July 1892 he claimed to be 47 yrs old. When he was 49 yrs, he res. 123 Coffee St. no date on record. He claimed to be 51 yrs old on 7 Aug. 1895 living at 367 Van Brunt St. These records show his birth ca 1844/5.

Divorced 1878 from Nellie Louisa Gaylor acc. to his Civil War Pension File deposition, altho they were together in 1880 census in Bklyn. Dau. Edith W. Collins Davidson deposed in March 1901 that they were divorced 22 yrs this comong summer. Nellie m2. Edward A. Clark (City Dir) who d. 1892/3, m3. 1895 Chas. Caldwell.

Wm had half siblings named Mayo.

In 1850 census, he was with parents Wm and Janetta in Bklyn, Ward 2, p. 95, age 6 for birth ca 1844. He had an older sister Jannette and older Mayo siblings this census.
Wm's grmother Gertrude Wertheim Von Vultee was a dealer in ready made linens. This may be how he decided to become a sewing machine Agent.

In 1860, he appeared in Ward 4 in Bklyn age 16. b. NY with his sisters Jannett and Lucinda which identifies him. Head house was W. Collins 22 yrs b. MA. Was this his f. Wm with wrong age? Mother not on this census. Sarah Collins 50 yrs appears in hh.

1865 census says he was b. NY Co., but death certif says b. Bklyn.

In 1869 his occupation was Agent on birth of dau. 1 April and resided at 268 Bridge St. Bklyn. In 1872 Bklyn City Dir. Wm, Sewing machines res. 46 Smith St. In 1880 census, he was a Sewing machine Agent living at 450 Fulton St. Bklyn, b. ca 1846. In 1890's he was listed in Civil War Pension file as Solicitor and Canvasser. He was 5'4 or 5'5 and weighed 130-140 lbs in various phys. exams.
He died at home of Cornelia Spicer 78 Carroll St.
He did not remarry and had no other ch.

Please note that I had previously followed William H. Collins, s/o Henry Collins and Ethelinda Stephens, thinking they were my ancestors. That Wm m. Eliz. Moore as a young man and they were buried together in Greenwood Cem. also. Disregard any previous info. that may turn up which links Wm H. Collins to my family. Signed Jackie Humphrey Aug. 1998.

CHILD 5 - Lucinda Chapman COLLINS-7951

~~Was she the dau. who m. Chas. P. Kretschmar by Feb. 1879 and res. at 44 Park Place Bklyn when her mother's funeral was held there? Other wise her sister was the dau. of Jeanette V.V. who m. Kretschmar.~~

One Lucinda A. Collins was interred 6 Sept. 1848 in Greenwood Cem. Lot 1934 with Jeannette and Wm Collins Sr and Wm Collins Jr. and others. ~~The burial date as typed in a letter from Greenwood Cem. would be incorrect if it was for this Lucinda. It~~ could possibly be an earlier baby with same name born before Lucinda b 1851 - or Lucinda A. Collins who d. 1848 was another relative with the same name, possibly mother or sister of Wm Sr. If mother, she would have been b. by 1781 or prior.
